GREETINGS

October 28, 1958

Greetings to my Boys:

This all important business of living, of making a place for oneself in our world, is not an easy one. Life brings so many unexpected turns and curves in the way we have to travel that rarely do we see very far along the road ahead of us. Your way may seem dark and impassable, but as you travel along every difficulty you overcome will give you strength to overcome others.

The real test of an individual's greatness is not how many problems he faces, but how well he meets and solves his problems. Then education and training in character building will help you solve your problems.

The challenge to youth everywhere is understanding of present world and its problems. You can do much to help. Overcome your inferiority, worry, or just plain lack of knowledge, and get ready to make the world better by your having lived in it. You have within you the power to help create a new world. Believe you can.

Life is seldom tranquil. There are too many people today who believe that a peaceful life can be legislated or established by a man-made formula. They expect no difficulties, and become very upset when some appear. I do not believe that God intended life to be easy, but He did intend life to be happy and rewarding. You can enjoy life if you learn not to expect success around every turn in the road, and if you are willing to put your heart into your work and strive earnestly for the goal you have chosen.

To the 316 boys that comprise our enrollment I say be square and fair with your associates and you have the beginning of a satisfactory life.

Sincerely yours,

P. R. Brown

Develop Your Own Personality

No matter how distasteful your personality may be, you can improve it. Let's try to work on our own personality. These things we can do:

1. Be Cheerful.
2. Learn to like people, all people; hate builds hate.
3. Learn to be a good listener.
4. Give your service to others without seeking reward.
5. Try not to gossip about anybody, especially those you dislike.
6. Be courteous to everyone—adults and associates.
7. Don't take friendship for granted.
8. See good in everybody and everything.
9. Develop clean habits because your habits become a great part of you.
10. Take part in conversation, but don't talk too much.
11. Make new friends but keep those that are welcome.

Librarian Supervisor Visits Morrison

This month we were honored with the presence of Miss Bandele Bicaaise, Instructional Supervisor of the State Department of Liberia.

Miss Bicaaise was educated at Morgan College, Baltimore Maryland, and Columbia University, New York, New York.

She is spending one month in America, visiting and studying its secondary schools.

She expressed her surprise that we had such a large and well-equipped school for juvenile delinquents. She said that in her country there was no juvenile delinquency problem large enough to be handled by the State Department. Such a problem, if there were any, was handled by the parents.

A. and T. College Class Visits Morrison Training School

Oct. 28—The Class in Criminology consisting of 43 students and the teacher.

They visited the classrooms talked with groups and asked questions of the individual boys.

They were interested in how the boys live and how they react to the program of the entire school.

We are always glad to have classes from other schools visit the school to get some idea of the program.

OPINION

My Gratitude

Morrison has caused me to look at life in a different manner.

I remember when I first came to Morrison I felt that I had no friends. I was hopeless and suspicious.

I had lost interest in school, but I learned to like school here. I am determined to prepare myself so that I can help somebody to find a better life.

I am now going to school in Ellerbe because the people at Morrison arranged for me to finish the 12th grade there. So far my grades have been good and I met new friends.

My sincere thanks to all of those friends who opened the door to a new world for me. I am praying that I may not disappoint you in anyway.

Roger Davis

Intangible Reward

About one month ago, I became a member of the staff at Morrison Training School. I have enjoyed my work very much. I have always tried to help my fellowman whenever possible, however, I have never felt that I had done any real good. Now I feel that I am in position to do some good for humanity. If I am able to help a few boys find their places in society, my life and work will have real meaning and gives me a great sense of satisfaction.

Student Teachers Speak

My First Two Weeks At Morrison

As I begin to tell you, the readers of the Beehive, about the past two weeks and the impression made upon me by the people I have worked with, I am made to realize just how much I have enjoyed my stay here. From the moment I arrived on October 12th, I have felt that everyone is doing his utmost to make my stay here exactly what it has been, a very pleasant and enjoyable one.

As far as the actual classroom work is concerned, things aren't going as I had been led to believe. In talking with other practice teachers around the College, I had been told that I wouldn't start learning until I started teaching. Preparing myself for something of a 50-50 learning-teaching situation, I came to Morrison to do my student teaching. But now I feel that I am taking advantage of the students because I am doing about seventy-five percent of the learning, so that only leaves twenty-five per cent for the students. As things are now I can only thank Morrison for having afforded me the privilege of being among you for the next four weeks.

Fred Davis

Student Teaching For Me

When I arrived at Morrison Training School October 13th 1958, I was determined to successfully make myself a part of the school no matter how difficult the task be and I did believe that it would be a difficult one. But to my surprise I was greeted with kindness from both the faculty and students. I can best describe the teachers and students of Morrison Training School as being "one big happy family."

THE WAY BACK

A rapid knock on my door annoyed me a little, because I had set aside this period to sort out some material for the Beehive from the huge pile the boys had sent in. Looking up from the papers I noticed the tear-stained face of a dirty, mud spattered boy whom I bade enter. He came close to me and I asked what he wanted.

"I've come back," he said quietly.

"Come back from where?" I asked.

"I ran away from my work today, but when I got to thinking, I was sorry. So I turned around and came back."

I offered him a chair and for some time we talked of what it meant to run away and then to think and come back. I couldn't help thinking that that is what we all do at one time or another, whether mentally or physically. But like the Prodigal Son "we come to ourselves" and come back to the place from which we started.

This act of coming back is analageous with one's conversion. It is a personal job we can do for ourselves. First, we feel sorry or repent because we are able to think on our errors. Then we forsake our way, and turn around. Before we have gone far on the new way we find friends, among them Christ himself to guide and protect us on our journey.

Finally after reassuring him of the wonderful thing he had done for himself and for all of us who love him, I asked him to go to his building and clean up and he would feel clean inside and out.

He smiled as he left my room. In the hall there was his counselor who was looking for him, and to whom I explained the incident.

ROADS

A road might lead to anywhere--

To harbor towns and quays,
Or to a witch's painted house
Hidden by bristly trees.

It might lead past the tailor's door,
Where he sews with needle and thread,
Or by Miss Pim the milliner's,
With her hats for every head.

It might be a road to a great, dark cave
With treasure and gold piled high,
Or a road with a mountain tied to its end,

Blue-humped against the sky.
Oh, a road might lead you to anywhere--
To Mexico or Maine;
But then, it might just fool you, and
Lead you back home again!

Home

All the world is full of homes
Far and near Large and small;
But the one I call my own
Is best of all.

When the sunlight is like gold
And the stars, are hiding in by,
Whenever I may daily roam,
Back home I fly.

As I grow older and think better
Whether North or South
Or East or West
To get back I'll do my best.

—Howard Joyner

Gratitude

Thank you, Lord, for all you've done,
For your singing birds and setting sun;
Thank you for my mother
dear,
And for keeping her in your care.

Thank you for all our days,
And for changing our sinful ways;
Help us to grow brave and strong,
That we may follow right and shun the wrong.

Thank you for a voice to speak
To ask for whatever we seek;
Let thy mercy always be
In showers upon poor sinful me.

—James Oglesby

Morrison

Morrison is like a lady fair,
Filled with life and dignity;
She bids me enter her dwelling place
Where lives the virtues that shine
In her face.

Morrison is so beautiful,
There's none that can compare
And Nature furnishes cosmetics
To color the foliage and the shrubs
Sweetening the air.

Morrison is surely a second home,
Not a dull moment throughout the day,
Bring all your talents and be happy too,
Here you'll practice brotherhood
Your whole stay.

—Nathaniel Green

Love is Wonderful

Love is a wonderful thing,
Love makes the birdies' sing;
Love turns winter into spring;
Love is a joyful thing.

Love is as fresh as the dew,
Love brings happiness to you;
Love is always true,
That's my reason for loving you.

Hi Folks,
We are glad to be with you again. This is my first year as your sports reporter.

This year we have entered interscholastic football again and, if you ask me, we have a stronger team than ever before.

We are scheduled to play one more game this season. We look forward to it with high hopes and silent misgivings because it is the mighty team of Central High School at Elizabethtown.

We won our very first game with West Southern Pines High School by the score of 56-2. Somehow we didn't enjoy the game enough, not nearly so much as would have with keener competition.

Our second game was with Asheboro and even though the score was 8-8, we felt that we gained in efforts to match our opponents and the spectators were more highly entertained.

Our third game was with West Baden High School with whom we suffered our first defeat, 14-18, because of a costly mistake in the last minutes of the game.

Outstanding players of the four games were Roy Crowder, our touchdown ace, Luther Jones, our superb quarterback, and Elbert Banks, Columbus Johnson, Walter Covington and Gerald Murry won applause. Here is our team:

MORRISON BEARS AND KINGSVILLE PANTHERS
MEET AT HOMECOMING

October 23-It was Homecoming at Kingsville High School at Albemarle. The bands were playing. Logan High of Concord, and Kingsville High bands furnished beautiful music all through the game. Floats were arranged and lovely girls in beautiful costumes added to the autumn scenery. The queen with her magnificent court sat together on a colorful float on the sidelines.

The weather was superb, and as we ran out on the field our knees were a little shakey, but our hearts were strong. I wish I could tell you more, but space is too limited.

Well, we finally trimmed them 46-6, and the homecoming spirit drooped for there was no mirth in at Kingsville until the next activity.

We dined and danced after the game and regretted that the evening was so short.

Indoor Games

After six o'clock you will find us in our dormitories where various games are planned for us. Checkers, pigpong and and bingo are the favorites of the large boys.

In small boys dormitories, boxing, pick-up-sticks, checkers, marbles, and talent shows are their favorites.

We are finding many interesting ways to spend our time.

ON THE FARM

The Poultry Plant

The poultry plant composed of a house for layers, a house for broilers and a tractor shed is located on the South West side of the campus.

At the present time, we have 1000 cock-erels and 600 layers. The cockerels will be ready for consumption within eight weeks, and at that time, we plan to clear the house and put a nother 1000 straight run chicks, which will serve as replacement, in the laying flock and as broilers for the dining hall.

The 600 layers at the plant produce approximately 27 dozen eggs per day. This will give each bird a yearly average of 185 eggs. It is our goal to develop a flock that will yeild a yearly average of 235 eggs per bird. Each hen is producing a profit of 50 eggs over her feed bill which is slightly above average.

The Dairy

The dairy furnishes whole milk for the food department. The boys receive enough milk to supply the nutrients in quality to meet their needs.

The herd produced 13,310 pounds of whole milk last month. A large number of the milking cows will join the herd in the next thirty days at which time, we hope, our milk production will increase in population.

The boys taking on the job-training in agriculture butchered and processed 415 pounds of prime grade beef.

They also received training in the preparation of hides for marketing.

The dairy training includes feeding according to modern standards, herd management, artificial breeding, milking, keeping milk records and etc.

Field Operations Undergo Changes

A change in field operations has taken place this fall. A field "strip corpping" program is being developed. Strips are laid out on the contour in each field and a program of rotation of strips will be followed based on soil conservation practices.

The plan is that our entire farming area will be so arranged, including 2 areas that have been determined not profitable for row crop cultivation will be seeded with lespedeza.

Swine Production

We who work in swine production butchered and processed 1658 pounds of pork this month. We are proud to see the meat in the freezer locker after we had finished our job.

We are learning how to feed, breed, castrate, cure and prepare pens for swine.

We are also learning to care for sows and pigs and keep records of swine production.

Soil Experiment Started

With the help of County Agent, Mr. M.E. Riddick, we are conducting the soil experiment for Richmond County farmers. Samples of soil have been sent to the soil Testing Division of State, Raleigh to the fertilizer requirements.

Two demonstration plots have been selected to determine the nitrogen requirements for Bermuda grass. The results will be tabulated and published as a guide to the farmers in this section in the development of a fertilizer for Bermuda grass.

The Dixie Fertilizer Company is assisting with the project.

Student Teachers at Morrison

For the past two weeks three young men from A. & T. College are doing their student teaching at Morrison. They are Messrs. Fred A. Davis of Scotland Neck, Morris Jones of Fredericksburg, Va., and Benjamin Clark of Hamlet.

The first two are in industrial arts and the other in the field of social science.

We are glad to have them with us.

Educational Movies

The educational movies were exceptional good showing us the animals that lived on earth before man prehistoric Animals.

Again the movies about glaciuous, paper making, and catatogue making. We learned a great deal from the movies.

THE BEEHIVE

AN OFFICIAL PUBLICATION of the
MORRISON TRAINING SCHOOL
HOFFMAN, NORTH CAROLINA

Dear Friends:

As we come to the close of the year 1958 we look back and say that it has been a wonderful year for us — our staff increased from 42 to 62 which means more adequate service for 325 boys, our facilities are being gradually increased without too much inconvenience, and improvement can be noted in all areas of the school.

His Excellency Governor Hodges and State Officials, distinguished guests, parents of the boys and friends have found time to visit the campus this year. We are thankful that you could come.

And now as we approach the Christmas Season we are mindful of the many kindnesses shown us during the year — the countless magazines sent to the library by individuals and groups, the welfare agencies' checks and packages for Christmas Cheer, birthday gifts from the North Carolina Women's Clubs, and books from individuals all during the year. Again, we thank you.

May the Christ of the Manger and the abundant life that He gives be yours throughout the Christmas and the New Year.

Sincerely,

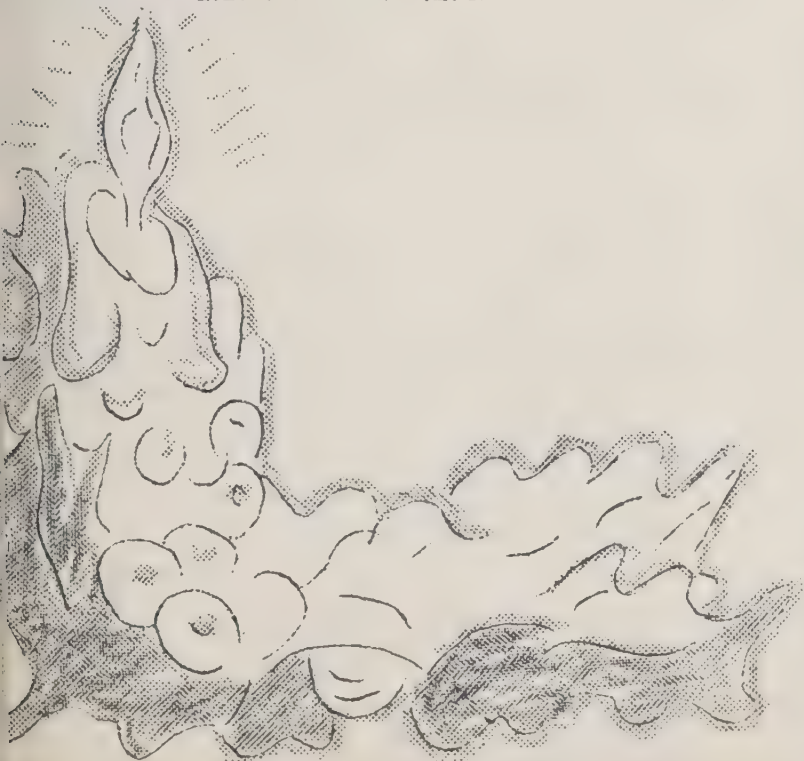

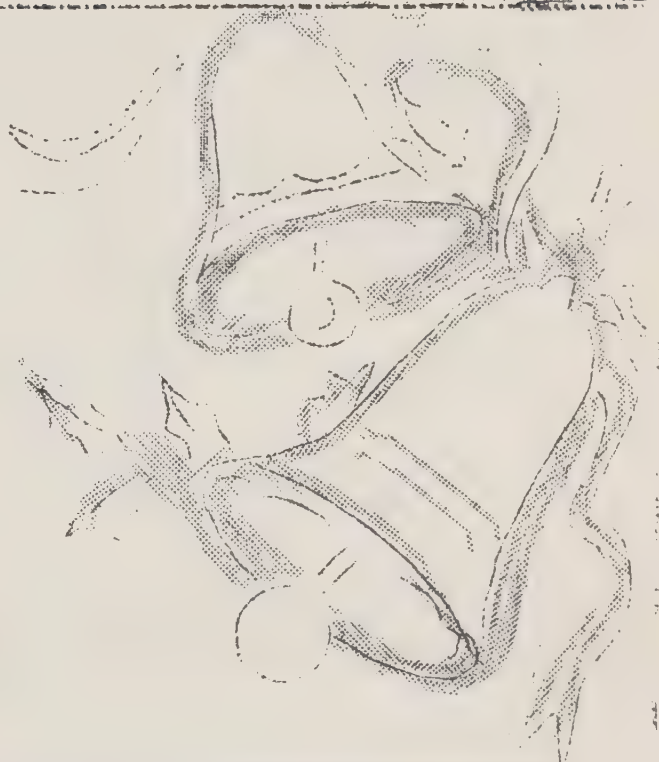

P. R. Brown

The Advisory Board held its annual meeting on November 21, 1958.

Problems facing the school during the next biennual were discussed.

The Chairman of the Board, Mrs. Rose D. Aggrey, presided. The members present were Mr. Blaine M. Madison, Commissioner of Correction, Miss Mae D. Holmes, Superintendent of the Training School for Negro Girls, Mrs. Mary Holliday, Dr. S. E. Duncan, Dr. John R. Larkins, Mr. Charles G. JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY CLASS VISITS MORRISON TRAINING SCHOOL

Nov. 11 — Twenty students along with their instructor, Mr. Joseph Ramsey, visited the classrooms, talked with groups and asked questions about individual boys as their class project.

They were interested in how boys live and how they react to the Morrison Training School program.

We are always glad to have classes visit us in order that they may get some ideas of the boys' problems and be prepared to help them with their solutions.

THE DINING HALL IS COMPLETED

The renovation of the dining hall has been completed and we are happy to be eating in comfort at last.

The completion of the dining hall has provided better service and balanced meals for the boys and staff, quicker service, and a larger preparation and eating area.

PARENT SENDS GIFT OF XMAS CARDS

Mrs. Katherine Jordan of Greensboro sent six boxes of Christmas Cards for the boys to send to their loved ones.

We are very thankful for these cards and already some of them have been mailed.

POPULATION RISES

Our population has continued to increase from 135 in 1944 to 325 as of December 1958.

This has been a fluctuation process, however, and this large increase of boys has kept up above our accommodations.

We are anticipating the completion of our new dormitories that are now under construction. We are hoping that they will greatly relieve the overcrowded living quarters.

COMMISSIONER AND HIS ASSISTANT VISIT THE CAMPUS

Mr. Blaine M. Madison, Commissioner of Correction and his Assistant, Mr. C. G. Bennett visited the campus during the month.

They visited the various buildings on the campus and made a check on the dining hall to be sure of the details of its completion.

BULLETIN BOARD IMPROVEMENT

Our front bulletin board has had its outstanding appeal since the last publication of the Beehive.

Mr. Moore, our art instructor, has shown his very favorable artistical ability in preparing this bulletin board with a Colonial Thanksgiving and Christmas Scenes. His art students helped in preparing these boards which provided real art experience.

FOUR TEACHERS FROM MORRISON ATTENDED THE NORTH CAROLINA TEACHER'S ASSOCIATION OF THE PIEDMONT DISTRICT

Four teachers, Mrs. F. M. Hasty from the primary grades, Miss P. V. Brunson from the grammar grades, Mr. T. J. Moore from the high school and Mr. E. S. Douglass from the Vocational Educational Department, attended the Piedmont District Teachers' Association.

OPINION

What Christmas Means to Me

Christmas means a great deal to me because everyone is happy. Christmas comes only once a year and we should make the most of it.

Its the time to receive and give presents, but most of all to give thanks to God for the matchless gift of His Son.

Christmas makes me realize how unworthy I am.

Howard Joyner

My Wish

I wish for everyone a very happy Christmas that lasts throughout the New Year.

May good health and happiness be yours.

Dining Hall Goal

We have a goal to be reached in the dining hall.

Namely:

Better table manners,
Cleaner eating habits,
Less wasting of food on the floor and tables,

Silence in the drinking of beverages and eating,

Promptness at meal time,

Cleaner surroundings,

Order and friendliness.

You can help!

We want to thank all concern making it possible for us to have and enjoy the new annex to our cafeteria..

Thanks to the many counselors for their constant supervision of the boys in the cafeteria and the progress that has been made.

Thanks to the cooks, Mr. Evans and boys for better service.

Mrs. O. C. Peerman, dietician

Imagine

Ray Gay willing his basketball because his conduct wouldn't permit him to make the varsity...

Walter Tucker trying to sing "O Come All Ye Faithful" in French.

Elbert Banks saying there are 100 counties in the United States.

Jerry Hoover putting toothpaste in his cereal because he likes the flavor.

Nathaniel Greene calling himself "The Voice."

William McGee looking up at Edwin Greene and calling him "Shorty".

Arthur Upchurch saying he had a call to the ministry since he was hurt in a wreck.

Curtis Lucky saying he wanted a baby doll for Christmas.

Charles Whitfield making a hundred in his work this year for the first time in his life.

Robert Thacker paying attention in class.

That's all for now, folks

Cottage Life Takes on New Meaning
It is a tremendous job to try to make cottage life with fifty or more boys seem like home, but that is what the house counselors are attempting.

Suppose you have fifty children to teach the meaning of Christmas? Well, that is what the counselors are trying to do.

Every staff member can help to make Christmas for 325 boys away from home, a happy one. Parents can help, too, by their visits and Christmas packages.

A prize is offered to most appropriately decorated building.

Integrity

The dictionary gives a fine definition or description for the word, "Integrity," but it should mean more to you as boys whose character is being molded into something either good or bad, to see this word as it becomes a part of our daily living.

You read daily in bold print in the newspapers about men and women who sacrifice their integrity for monetary or material gain. No matter how high they may climb up the social ladder, no matter how much they have achieved in the way of material success, they cannot buy back their integrity once it is lost.

Do you want people to believe in you? Then, if you haven't already started, start now to practice honesty in every phase of your life. In so doing you will speak the truth and live the truth and let honesty grow in you as advance in physical growth.

Just recently a problem arose in which a sum of money was lost. For two or three days boys were questioned, but the answer always pointed to Anthony Bristow who had recently been released.

Anthony was asked to return to the institution for questioning, and he came.

When he entered the conference room eyes flashed, and heads bowed. As he faced his accusers, he was calm and fearless.

When he had finished his story the other boys admitted that they didn't know we would bring Anthony back to testify, and that he was telling the truth.

They went out and found the money where they had hidden it, and Anthony was returned home.

I hope you have learned the value of integrity from this incident. If Anthony had sacrificed his integrity for a few dollars, and if he had stolen the money to take home with him he would have lost his freedom to be at home Christmas with his parents and loved ones.

You will have to make a choice one day to lead a life of integrity or honesty. Now is the time to begin building sound moral principles, honesty in every phase of our being.

This Christmas let us humble ourselves and accept God's gift of His Son because He loved us and because He wanted to save us from our sin.

Personals

We were so happy that Dr. R. S. Holliday was able to accompany Mrs. Holliday when she attend the Advisory Board meeting. We always expect him.

IN MEMORIAM

As we prepare this Beehive we are saddened by the death of our very dear friend, Dr. Ernest Branch of the State Dental Health Department.

Dr. Branch never came to Morrison or passed without remembering to bring us a large number of the best magazines.

Aside for his thoughtfulness in brining the magazines, he always brought a smiling face and a deep interest in the dental cure of the children of North Carolina. So we join Will M. Carleton and say:

"He has seen old views and patients disappearing one by one;
He has learned that Death is master both of science and art;
He has done his duty fairly and has acted his part;
And the strong old country doctor
And the weak old doctor
Is entitled to a furlough for his brain and his heart."

of Laurinburg, N.C.; Richard Thacker Arthur E. Thacker, Oviver Going, John Jones, Edward Jordan, Verness Saddler of Greensboro, N.C.; Charles Henson of Gastonia, N.C.; Thurlon Lee of Whiteville, N.C.; Walter Tucker of Elkins, N.C.; Freddie Britton, James Henry Searcy Alfred Garrett, Harvey Hannah, James Peay, Anthony Bristow, Paul Smoot, Frank Harris, Horace Winchester of Winston Salem, N.C.; James Chavis of Durham, Jasper McCormick of Durham, N.C.; Lonnie B. McClain of Zebulon, N.C.; Norman Williams of Roxboro, N.C.; Dolphus Giles, Jollette Robinson, Curtis Lucky and Melvin Miller of Charlotte, N.C.,

The above named boys were recommended for their Thanksgiving home visit by the staff of this institution, and we are proud of the fact that the boys returned on schedule. It is our hope that these boys will continue to keep good conduct.

Hi Sport Fans,

We are glad to be with you again another basketball season.

We are looking forward to the greatest team we have ever had at Morrison. Our varsity team boasts the best players on the campus. They are out to play the game with that Morrison spirit.

We have not played a conference game yet, but we played Rockingham High with a score of 56-31 in our favor.

Our second game was with Mineral Springs High School of Ellerbe of which we won with a score of 87-42.

Our varsity team consists of the following boys: Charles Speight, Luther Jones, Harvey Winchester, Columbus Johnson, Otis Percell, Nathaniel Greene, Walter Covington, James Peay, Mr. L. V. Balsley-Coach.

Dec. 16-The Morrison Bears journeyed to Albemarle, North Carolina to play Kingville High. Elbert Banks, Captain, and Nathaniel Greene, Co-Captain, of our team led us on.

We hadn't a moment to spare, because we had no previous knowledge of the type of team we were about to face. We knew we had a job before us and by each man working together we could win.

Our center, James Peay played an outstanding game, was one of our highest scorers, along with Luther Jones and Columbus Johnson.

The game finally ended with a score of 56-64 in our favor.

Now we know we can win, and we agree with our coach Mr. Lorenzo Balsley, that Morrison can play, if we try, in the tournament this year.

We'll do our best.

Walter Covington, Reporter

Intramural Basketball

During the Thanksgiving holidays the counselors of each building held an intramural basketball tournament. The teams represented our six dormitories.

Tate Hall was the champion in the senior division and Varner Hall was champions of the junior division. A prize was given to each championship team.

Cottages are looking forward with great enthusiasm to the Christmas tournaments.

Mr. W. T. Windley,
Assistant Superintendent

Dec. 18-We played a return game in our gym with the team from Albemarle.

We were too sure of winning and just squeezed a victory of 52-51 in our favor.

Visitors

During the month we welcomed to our campus Mrs. Reese Durante, Home Demonstration Agent, and Mr. Riddick, Farm County Agent of Richmond County.

Mrs. A. M. Davenport, Mrs. H. M. Smith and Mrs. J. R. Covington spent some time on Morrison Campus during the Thanksgiving Holiday Season.

Mr. Covington's son, J. R. Junior accompanied his mother.

Congratulations

We offer our congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Evans and their new arrivals, Muriel Adele Evans and Marcus Waddell Evans, born November 13, 1958.

Congratulations to Joseph M. Thompson Jr. on his birthday, December 2, 1958. He entertained other little boys on the campus with a party. He had one candle on his birthday cake.

ON THE FARM

THE POULTRY PLANT

Since the last publication of the Beehive we have begun a poultry project. We thought this would create more interest in the vocational agriculture department. We have had vital experiences since this project was begun.

In as much as the egg is one of nature's most perfect foods, we find it necessary to make our knowledge extensive in the care of chickens.

We are interested in the production of chickens to be consumed as meat for our diets, we are, also, interested in egg production as they are beneficial in our diets.

We have had training in the areas of agriculture that dealt with the principles of egg production, broiler production and poultry plant management.

We were able to collect 540 dozens eggs, an average of 216 eggs each day ranged from 298 down to 104. The variation in our egg production each day was due to the sudden change in temperature caused by weather conditions.

H.W. Parker, Voc. Ag. teacher
R. L. Jones, Farm Manager

Broiler Report

In the past few days, we have killed 1070 pounds of poultry for the dining hall. At the end of this week, we hope to finish killing the flock which we hope will give us an addition of about 500 pounds of poultry.

About January 15, 1959, we hope to be ready to start another flock of straight-run birds. The pullets will be used for replacement in the laying flock and will fatten the cockerels for the dining hall.

H. W. Parker, Reporter

THE DAIRY

Milk production varies with the season of the year, with winter being the most critical season of all.

Low temperatures and heavy frosts, snow and ice have killed most of our grasses and grain that was formerly used for grazing. As a result there is a slight decrease in milk production this month.

The herd produced 10,161.70 pounds of whole milk last month. Five cows came into production, adding to the herd 4 bull calves and one heifer. Four other cows are expected to come into production during the month.

The baby bulls will be slaughtered for baby beef at the age of eight weeks.

The boys who work in the dairy have done a good job during the unusually cold weather we have experienced in December.

A. M. Davenport.
Dairy Herdsman

Field Operation

The "Field Strip Cropping" program is still under way. This program not only aids in soil conservation, but beautifies the entire farming area as well. The general appearance of the farm has already improved a great deal. This can be observed by looking over some 140 acres of farm land at the beautiful green strips which have been sown with winter barley, wheat, rye, clover and mixed grain against the brown frost bitten grasses and weed strips that will be sown with crotalaria as green manure crops in the spring.

There has been a great deal of activity on the truck farm during the past two months preparing to meet the demand for vegetables in the dining hall.

When Christmas Comes

When Christmas comes--
There is so much rejoicing
With voices raised in song,
The happy smiles of children
When Santa comes along.

There's something very peaceful
There's something in the air,
And lifts our hearts from care
When Christmas comes.

increasing from age to age, while the relative so to speak, or growth arrested.
And our high task is to help this shapfilment in our own souls, that roses of life grow best about the cross.

ILLNESS OF STATE DENTIST

Word comes to us of the illness of Dr. J. H. Barnhill. We hope he has fully recovered.

HAVE YOU READ?

Christmas is almost here! Have you started reading the many books we have on display in the library about Christmas? Come in and browse around and see what interesting one you can find to read.

The Home Book of Christmas Edited by May Lamberton Becker. Here's indeed a merry Christmas for you. Christmas is set down in order of Shepherds. The Magi, The Preparations, The Waits, The Gifts, Santa Claus, The Stockings, The Tree, The Dinner.

Among the authors are Dickens, Irving, Marley, Heywood Brown, Untermyer O'Henry and others. Here you find the most enjoyable stories ever written about Christmas.

The Golden Christmas Book, Compiled by Gertrude Crampton is an easily read collection of stories, poems, puzzles, things to do and carols. "Pegasus and the Star," by John Brangwyn is the Christmas story through the help of a horse named Pegasus. The Cratchitt's Christmas Dinner is taken from Dickens Christmas Carol. GREETINGS

February 27, 1959

Greetings:

We are happy today to send greetings to our many friends, and to give a report that the two new buildings are nearing completion. With good weather and warmer days, the contractors will be able to complete the two new units within a spand of about 30 days.

With the completion of the new buildings the emergency housing in the shop building can be transferred to the new buildings, and we shall have a little reduction in the over-crowded conditions in the other five dormitories. The waiting list can be cleared or reduced and this condition, we hope, shall ease the pressure, especially, where boys have been waiting for a long time to be admitted.

The Commissioner of Correction has gone forward with plans for the purchase of furniture and equipment in order that when the buildings are ready we can immediately plan to occupy them. This realization will definitely be an improvement over the housing condition in Varser Hall which forced us to seek temporary quarters in the shop building. At the completion of the two new buildings a statement will be sent in order that our friends can share with us the accomplishments realized through the efforts of our Commissioner and others.

Sincerely,

P. R. Brown
Superintendent

The Norwood Elementary School Band consisting of 21 pieces delighted the staff and boys of Morrison with a variety program on January 30, 1959.

Children from the fourth through seventh grades were chosen to play in the band. The thing that made it more enjoyable was two boys formerly from Morrison. Crawford and Melvin Ellis were playing in the band.

The director was Mr. J. L. Thomas formerly from Winston-Salem Teachers College and the University of Colorado. Mrs. H. C. Young accompanied the band as a chaperone.

Our population continues to increase. Despite the coming and going, we don't seem to have an answer to the relief of the problem of congestion.

Boys entering during the first biennial in the order in which they came were: Willie A. Copeland of Northampton, James E. Jackson of Martin, Melvin Butler of Guilford, John Lan of Martin, Donald Black of Craven, Bobby L. Young of Mecklenburg, Woodrow Martin of Mecklenburg, Willie Lindsay Jr. of Mecklenburg, Nurman Giles of Wake, James Waller of Durham, Willie Shellie, Tommy Marshall, Elwood Melvin of Durham, James T. Steele of Charlotte, James Thompson of Charlotte and David Simpson, of Charlotte.

Boys Earn Movie Trip

The boys are given a chance to go to the movie once every month provided their dormitory makes the highest average in cleanliness.

This month Varser Hall won the movie trip and all boys, except those who ran away during the month, enjoyed the trip.

We traveled by school bus to Southern Pines where we saw "Up Periscope" starring James Garner and Elmore Bryant.

Those who earned the trip were Noland Autery, John D. Barrino, Harry Barnes, Donald Black, James Gainey, Arthur Gary, Richard Herbin, James T. MORRISON BAND RENDERS FIRST PROGRAM

On Sunday February 22, 1959 the band gave a program at the Bethel Hill Church in Cognac, North Carolina, sponsored by Mrs. F. M. Hasty, of Morrison.

The program drew quite a crowd and they enjoyed it.

Edwin Greene contributed two instrumental solos, one on trumpet, and the other on saxophone. Titles are are unrecorded.

Two quartets accompanied the band to Cognac. One quartet was from Bost Building and the other from Aggrey Cottage. Both groups did very well.

After the concert, our band director Mr. S. W. Macon was congratulated several times for the magnificent work he is doing with our band.

The Morrison band has been invited to appear in several concerts as a result of the program at Bethel Hill Church.

The band will give a concert and dance combined on March 6, 1959 in Beaver Dam School, Hoffman, North Carolina. Rev. A. R. Perkins is principal.

HERE AND THERE

SCIENCE AROUND US

One difference in plants and animals is the ability animals possesses to know about his surroundings.

There are many different kinds of eyes in the animal kingdom. Some are used for distinguishing light from darkness, yet nature has planned them according to needs.

Many insects and other animals with jointed bodies have compound eyes made up of individual surfaces called facets.

Butterflies have 17,000 facets in each eye and dragonflies as many as 28,000. Such creatures are nearsighted and see things many small images.

Insects can see colors a block away, but seldom see moving things more than six feet away.

Birds such as eagles can see objects far away but the best eyes of the animal kingdom are human eyes.

THE TALENT SHOW

To encourage more participation by boys on programs a group of supervisors sponsored a talent program. So many boys wanted to participate that it was necessary to have two elimination before the final program was scheduled.

The show was divided into four categories: singing, dancing, acts and stunts, and instrumental music.

Most of the boys spent considerable amount of time getting their parts ready and were rewarded with applause by the group. It brought out some of the hidden talents of so many of our quiet boys, and we are all looking forward to more and better programs.

The winners in the various categories were: Singing; Parson Hall Trio, Varser Hall Sextet, Eugene Thacker and The El Dorados, Dancing; Mack Bailey Dance Group, Rice and Gay Jitterbugs and Willie Harvey.

ACCEPT OUR THANKS

The Morrison Training School Band is looking forward to a spring concert to be held at this institution. This program will consist of a variety of music. Special numbers to be rendered by the band are: "To A Wild Rose" and "Bless This House."

The Morrison Training School band has made much progress since the first of October, but is still in the infancy stage.

The reason for its success thus far, is due to the cooperation of the administrative heads, staff members, and outside organizations.

Dr. Brown, has already expressed his appreciation to all persons for their contributions toward band instruments. The band and the director also express their appreciation and many thanks.

BOYS EARN TRIP TO CIAA TOURNAMENT

February 26, 1959, Twenty-nine boys who kept good conduct and were a member of the basketball team went to North Carolina College for the opening of the CIAA Tournament. They saw four games, which were very much enjoyable.

The first game of the evening was played between Elizabeth City Teachers College and Virginia State. This game was won by Virginia State with the scores of 86-79.

The second game was with North Carolina College and Winston-Salem College. It was won by North Carolina College and the scores were 77-72. This ended the games for the evening.

Were fortunate to stay for the night started at 8:00 P. M., between Virginia Union and Delaware. It was won by Virginia Union with scores of 99-83. The final game was played with A. and T. College and Hampton Institute. A. and T. College took the game with scores of 84-79.

We saw some former Morrison boys. They were Sidney Hall, Robert Lindsay and Douglass Scott. They invited us to visit the various departments on the campus.

We enjoyed the trip very much and feel grateful toward those persons who provided the opportunity for us. It is quite an experience and we are working toward making ourselves eligible for the coming opportunities.

MRS. P. R. BROWN SPEAKS AT FAYETTEVILLE STATE COLLEGE

On February 22, 1959 at 4:00 P. M. Mrs. P. R. Brown was the guest speaker at the Vesper Services Celebrating Finer Womanhood Week at Fayetteville State College, Fayetteville North Carolina. She spoke on "Some Help in The Area of Juvenile Delinquency." There are two major types of delinquents: The naughty child and the problem child, and the problem child, both are the results of faulty sets of moral values and physical and mental defects, Mrs. Brown pointed out. She said it is the responsibility of all citizens to teach children the lessons of truth and goodness.

The program was sponsored by the Gamma Upsilon Zeta and Omega Bata Chapters of the Zeta Phi Bata Sorority, Incorporation.

ACTIVITIES AT REDD BUILDING

There are sixty boys living in Redd Building ranging in ages from 14 to 17.

I have had many years of experience in teaching children, but my work at Morrison is most gratifying. It is here that I attempt to teach the whole child, and their eagerness to learn the right way makes me respond with my best efforts.

My co-workers, Mr. J. A. Justice and Mr. W. McDougal have been most kind and cooperative, along with all staff members.

I am most thankful for having the opportunity for this type of service.

A FORWARD GLANCE

As you enter the second month of this New Year I should like to remind you that there are certain obligations that each one of you should meet while you are the recipients of so many kindnesses from people far and near--gifts of clothing, food, magazines, books and money.

People have shown by their gifts that no matter what you have done in the past, they still believe that the future will bring to you a new realization of your responsibility. If you do not deserve this faith that people have in your rehabilitation, then the future will be sad for you and them, for youth is the keeper and preserver of all that America has held sacred, of all that the generations before you have left for your heritage.

The New Year is already yours to live in--yours to start a new way of life--that will be yours in the years that lie before you. Accept the challenge of each new day and let not the setting sun find you with one moment lost because you have not made the best use of it.

J. S. Brown

THE SUNNYSIDE UP

This month we have intensified the study of negro History, so that instead of celebrating Negro History week we can feel that whatever contributions the negro has made, has been made to American History.

We have tried to link the study of Negro History to the study of man's achievements in every phase of life. Hence a new interpretation of life that measures a man's contribution according to his opportunity.

We are responsible for our brother's understanding of us. Have we made ourselves friendly? Are we industrious? Are you too critical of our neighbor?

People sometimes judge a whole race of people by the conduct of a few. Turn your sunnyside out that others may see and understand.

A PAT WHERE IT BELONGS

It is so seldom that we can see how much another's work adds to our comfort. It has been a rather busy time for the boys and staff of the engineering department. With furnaces to keep operating, water and lights to furnish continuously for the whole campus, we owe them our sincere appreciation for the splendid cooperation and the cheerfulness with which they do their work. Here's to Mr. W. H. McKoy Mr. G. W. Tomlinson and all the engineering boys.

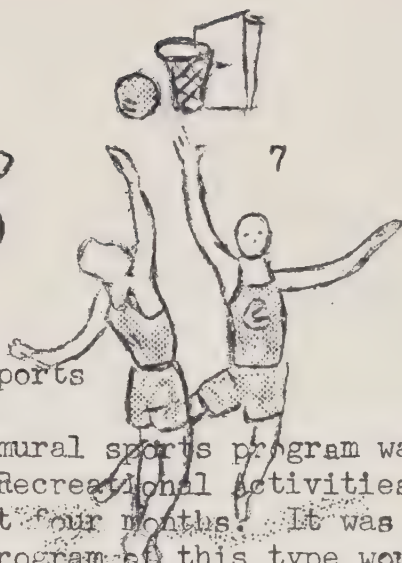

Brotherhood

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers none goes his way alone. All that we send into the lives of others, comes back into our own."

Edwin Markham

SPORTS

Intra-mural Sports

The intra-mural sports program was added to the Recreational Activities during the last four months. It was felt that a program of this type would interest the many non-varsity athletes here at Morrison and at the same time it would break up the continued routine of the counselor's program.

The program started with a basketball tournament during the Thanksgiving Holidays. This tournament was organized in two divisions. Both Senior and Junior Divisions were composed of six teams each. The championship rounds were held on Thanksgiving Day. Tate Building won the Senior Division crown by defeating a hard fighting team from Redd Building. The Junior Division crown was won by Varser Hall who defeated Best Building in a closely fought game.

The second major event was a track and field meet which was held during the Christmas Holidays. Here again we had the two divisions. The winner of the Senior Division was Varser Hall. The Junior Division championship was won by Best Building. Some of the individual winners were W. Simmons, one mile run; J. Waddel, 100 yard dash; J. Waddel, W. McCullough, W. McGee and M. Miller, 220 yard relay; R. Knight, sack race; J. Robinson, running broad jump (14 feet 4½ inches); R. Crowder, 440 yard dash; B. Byrd, 880 yard dash; R. L. Richardson, 100 yard dash; and E. Little.

To date, this program has been very interesting and has produced many hidden talented boys. We are looking forward to having some more spring activities that will be planned by the counselors and the boys of the various dormitories.

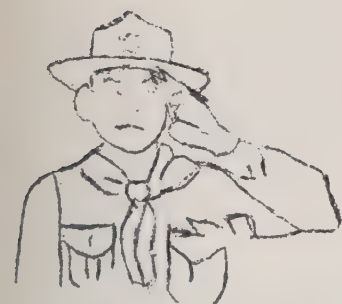

Morrison Bears got their victory No. 11 against no losses at Morrison Monday February 16, 1959, as they battled with Washington Drive School of Fayetteville a thrilling game.

The Bears are enjoying the best season they have had in a long time. The team is taking the unusual record in stride. The Captain, Elbert Banks, sums it up with "We only hope we can do as well in the State Play-Off to be held March 5, 6, and 7th in Aberdeen, N. C."

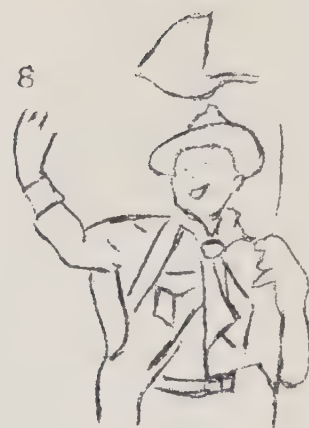

Banks has led the team with 158 points for the season, with an average of 14.8 points a game. Columbus Johnson has proved to be very valuable in rebounding for the Bears and made 122 points for the season.

Farm Mechanics

The boys assigned to the farm this winter have done a good job providing produce for the school. The weather has been unusually bad for outside work.

A large part of the on-the-job instruction has been devoted to farm mechanic. Last month three tractors were repaired. Many other pieces of farm equipment have been repaired and put in working condition for spring operations. Fences in the pasturing area has been replaced. An area of the truck farm has been electrical fenced to control deer.

The brooder house at the poultry plant has been painted and made ready for a group of baby chicks which will arrive February 10, 1959.

Field Crops

The field cropping division has limed eighty acres. Thirty acres have been prepared for spring planting.

The truck farm will be mechanized this year. A Farm-All tractor. The boys have planted seeds on the hot bed. The seeds were collards, cabbage, and lettuce. They have planted onions, green peas and tender greens.

Poultry

The boys working with poultry provided 260 dozen eggs last month. This was the lowest production in six months. This low production was due to an attack of pullorum. The agricultural students carrying poultry projects received instruction on how to clean the plant, grade and crate eggs.

Swine

The boys working with swine feel that their winter projects have been a success. They have 16 sows and some pigs on winter pasture. Eighty-five other pigs are on small grain pasture. Twenty hogs are being fatten for butchering this month. 800 lbs of pork were processed this month.

Dairying

Through the rain and cold the dairy boys delivered 15,000 pounds of 3.7 B. F. milk to the dining hall. They processed 285 pounds of beef for the dining hall.

At the calf barn one can see a new group of winter calves which were sired through artificial breeding. Some of these animals will be used replacements.

Dairy Supervisor Attends Short Course At State College

Mr. Alfred Davenport attended the three weeks course given dairymen on artificial insemination. Mr. Davenport is a graduate of A. T. College in Vocational Agriculture and is at present supervisor of the Morrison Dairy.

Signs of Spring

As we work on the farm we watch small animals such as rabbits, squirrels, rats and raccoons get out the way of plow or tractor. Sometimes they seem to want to play with us.

Within the past two weeks we have noticed a whole field of robins busy in the fields gathering food.

Best of all, we have seen four redbirds or our own North Carolina Cardinals. We hope they are here to stay.

Farm Thoughts

OUR THANKS

Our friends for and near have been most kind in their giving. This is our first Beehive since Christmas, and we take this opportunity to express our thanks again to the various Welfare Departments for gifts for their boys; the Women's Clubs for birthday gifts each month; Mrs. Millie Lomax of Pinehurst, Mesdames E.R. Washington and Edith S. Hammond of Winston-Salem and Mr. Samuel E. Leonard of Montreat, former Commissioner of Correction for a large supply of magazines for the library during the year.

We cannot begin to say how much has been given us by our staff when we are given trips off the camp.s. For everything we are deeply grateful to you all.

Sincerely yours,

HAVE YOU READ

"If the richness of the Indies, or the crowns of all the kingdoms of Europe, were laid at my feet in exchange for my love of reading, I would spurn them all."
— Fenelon

Bon Boyage

by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes

This is a story about Katie and Harry Willard who had planned and saved for a European holiday. By the time they sailed on the Queen Mary, the trip wasn't quite as they would imagined it not with their beautiful daughter Amy in tow, plus Elliott, a teen-ager with a roving eye, and last, but perhaps most, 12 year-old Skipper. The Willard family saw the sights, they learned a lot, but most important they discovered that Romance, European style, can throw curves they would never dreamed of back in Terre Haute.

The Winthrop Woman

by Anya Seton

The stranger-than-fiction life of Elizabeth Winthrop is authentic American history, woven into a fascinating novel. Elizabeth was a Puritan woman who lived with a gusto at odds with her heritage and her surroundings, dared question the religious beliefs of her time and, above all, dared to love as her heart and being commanded. The story of the girl Governor Winthrop of Massachusetts called his "unregenerate niece" is one of fortitude, humiliation and final triumph.

Big Caesar

by Charlton Ogburn, Jr.

Big stories sometimes come in small packages. In this brief novel, a perceptive author says a great deal about youth, love and human values as he tells the appealing story of young Ronnie Gaines his mammoth truck and Big Caesar.

A Family Party

by John O' Hara

In this short novel, the "family" is a whole community, gathered to honor one of its own, the doctor who has served them selflessly for forty years. In the simple words of Sam Merritt's oldest friend a lifetime of achievement and quiet courage is moving recalled.

by Frank Gilberth and Ernestine Gilberth Carey

Climb aboard with the Gilberths in further adventures of this uproarious clan! "Belles on Their Toes" tells what happens when the Gilberths boys get growing pains and the girls discover romance. It is as lively as "Cheaper by The Dozen". In fact, it is one of the few sequels that is more entertaining than the original.

Island In The Sky

by Ernest K. Gann

Although this is the first book to be written about the Army Air Transport Commander, it is not a war story. The men who fly these planes are commercial airline pilots. This story is in tune with sagas of the sea. Gann has given us great world-routes of the future.

GREETINGS

September 29, 1959

Greetings:

For a long time we have kept a waiting list, sometimes reaching as high as 68 boys. We are happy to report that for the last several weeks we have been able to accept boys as soon as applications were received. Increased enrollment causes an increase in staff members.

We welcome our new staff members and wish for them a long, happy tenure at Morrison and may they give renewed vigor to the task of making better citizens who in turn will make our great State a better place in which to live.

The opening of the new training school at McCain this month by the Board of Correction and Training and Commissioner of Correction, Mr. Blaine Madison, brings the total number of training schools of North Carolina to six.

Some of the Morrison personnel were transferred to the new school. Mr. & Mrs. W. R. Windley were among the first to be assigned. Others have been transferred since. To all who work in the new school we extend our congratulations and best wishes.

Three hundred and forty-six boys and sixty-five staff members join with me in wishing for all concerned with the training of youth God's blessings on their efforts.

Sincerely,

P. R. Brown
Superintendent

Mrs. Clendenen Sends Books From Indiana

Sept. 15, - Mrs. Daniel Clendenen of La Porte, Indiana has sent a large shipment of high school and elementary school books to Morrison Training School. Mrs. Clendenen has sent books every two years for a long time, giving us books for our library, supplementary books for our classrooms, books for each dormitory and many textbooks that North Carolina public schools are using.

This time we divided our books with the new training school at McCain.

TRAINING SCHOOL AT MCCAIN OPENS

Eleven boys were transferred from Morrison Training School to the new Training School at McCain September 16, 1959 and were the first boys to be admitted to this new school.

The Training School at McCain was a former Sanatorium and turned over to the North Carolina Board of Correction and Training for training school purposes in June 1959.

The entire school is housed under one roof, has an auditorium with a seating capacity of 150, and modern kitchen facilities. The ground floor is now being renovated for the Academic Department which will have 8 classrooms, library, lady teachers' lounge, men teachers' lounge, and boys' lounge.

Each cottage unit will consist of approximately 25 boys and two Houseparents.

The following staff members were transferred from Morrison to open the new school: Mr. W. R. Windley, Superintendent, Mrs. E. T. Windley, Teacher, Mr. Wallace McDougald, Budget Officer, Mr. L. H. Robinson, Counselor.

Boys transferred were: Donnie Barnes, Navin Hawkins, Gilbert Kyles, James Mills, Rodger Benton, Harvey Jones, Ralph Little, Alex Rodman, David Gainey, Jimmie Jones, William Little.

Counselors for these boys are Mr. & Mrs. Percy E. Norris of Columbia, South Carolina.

To Dr. & Mrs. Brown, members of the staff and boys of Morrison, we shall never forget you and will always remain a part of you.

What Do You Think About Year Around School At Morrison

I think all year round school is all right, because the longer you go to school the more you learn. All that you have learned in the 12 months school term will help you in the future, whether you plan to go to college or not.

Here at Morrison year round school is helpful, because it keeps our minds on our lesson, and we don't have time to think of evil things to do.

-Kenneth Johnson

I think year round school is a good idea. It would give some students a chance to catch up, and others a chance to make more advancement. Undoubtedly it would help curb some of this juvenile delinquency and other community problems. Because the longer you go to school the more activities there will be to take part in and the less leisure time America's Youth will have to indulge in delinquent acts.

-Gerald Murry

I think that year round school would cause less juvenile delinquency. If a boy or girl would go to school all year round, it would be that they would spend more time getting homework and studying.

These are some of the things that students would worry about. Will book fee be the same? How much time will there be for vacation? Will classes be longer? Will it take more units to get in college? Will it mean longer or shorter school hours?

At Morrison, twelve months school help us to keep busy so we don't think of the time.

-James Blackwell

I think if we should go to school the year round it wouldn't take as long to finish high school.

Going to school the year round has its advantages. One of its advantages is that you won't have or you shouldn't have so much time to get in trouble. By going to school the year round you will learn more, I think. You will also be better prepared for college.

-Granson Lindsay

I think year round school is a good plan. It also has its disadvantages, if tried at home.

A working student wouldn't have too much of a chance to get a job or do odd things around the house to help his parents.

It is also a possibility that more interest in school might occur. If the student knew he could finish high school earlier and begin college soon. Such an advantage may cause his attention to be focused on the goal of achievement and he loses interest in the activities than lead to delinquency.

-Elisha Johnson

I liked the plan of twelve months fine. It didn't let me forget I was in school and I had to remember what I had learned.

The weather was hot at Morrison, but the lake was cool after school and so I did not complain. It was better than being on the streets doing nothing at home.

SCHOOL ALL YEAR

Correctional Schools over the State of North Carolina have had their first 12 months school.

At Morrison, it has been a informative experience, both for the boys and for the staff members. The weather was changeable which made it not too hot for long periods of time, and since the boys were divided into two groups that went to school for a half day each it was not too tiresome or boresome for them.

The curriculum was enriched with educational pictures, and campus excursions, and physical education.

It was good for the boys, too, because it kept them busy learning new things and retaining what they had learned by using it. Our summer program was the same as our winter program, therefore, the boys were kept busy and were too tired to do very much running away.

They agree that summer vacations make them forget what they learned or rather thought they had learned.

Two weeks vacation in June gave them a break when they needed it most.

We came back to school in July as fresh, as if we were starting in September.

INTEGRITY

The dictionary gives a fine definition or description for the word, "Integrity." But it should mean more to you as boys whose character is being molded into something either good or bad, to see this word as it becomes a part of our daily living.

You read daily in bold print in the newspapers about men and women who sacrifice their integrity for monetary or material gain. No matter how high they may climb up the social ladder, no matter how much they have achieved in the way of material success, they cannot buy back their integrity once it is lost.

Do you want people to believe in you? Then, if you haven't already started, start now to practice honesty in every phase of your life. In so doing you will speak the truth and live the truth and let honesty grow in you as you advance in physical growth.

Now is the time to begin building sound moral principles, honesty in every phase of our being.

They Came Back

This summer has been most gratifying to all of us at Morrison because many of our former boys, who have grown into men, and are making an honest living for families of their own came by to pay us a visit.

Each one of them expressed the same warm appreciation for the training that they received here. As the other boys looked on they were inspired and said, "We're coming back and tell how much you helped us. Just watch and see".

These are the reasons the staff members cannot easily leave the work. It is so rich in memories, so poor in regrets.

REMEMBERING

"Remembering and wishing, too

Raymond Peterson is adjusting well at home and attending school regularly.

Edward Lee Clark of North Hampton County has been a willing worker and has aided his mother and older brothers a great deal in helping to support the entire family.

Ronald Stovall of Salisbury is an ordained minister and has sent us an invitation to his wedding to Miss Marie Stewart of Los Angeles, Calif. September 21, 1959.

He was in training at Morrison 1953-54.

Charles Lee Hewitt of Iredell County is getting along well since his return home to Statesville, N. C., makes regular reports to DWP attends school regularly and has a very good attitude.

Willie McQuiller of Rowan County continues to live with his parents. His adjustment in the home and community is satisfactory.

Edwin Reinhart of Catawba County has gotten along well in school and one can see a big change in his attitude and behavior. He picks up what work he can after school.

George Douglass of Anson County has been working ever since he left.

William Ray, James Harris, Calvin Robinson, Versal and Alfonza Mason of Durham are all attending school and getting along all right.

Roy Crowder of Raleigh is playing on Ligon High's football team and seems to be happy attending school.

Rudolph Hackney of Moncure is working in a service station and hasn't been in any trouble at all.

George Shanks of Gastonia who left Morrison in 1948, was graduated from Reid High School in 1949, was drafted and served in the army 1951-53. He married when he came home and is now a foreman in a plastic factory in Newark, New Jersey.

He brought his mother, wife and his child to visit Morrison this summer.

Lawrence Edward Smith working at Depot in Moncure is getting along fine single.

Thomas White and George Patterson of Greensboro who left us in 1958 have been attending Dudley High School and are in the senior class this year.

Walter Tucker is planning to enter 12th grade in Elkin after a summer of hard work.

Charles Gaston of Hamlet is on the football team at Monroe Avenue High School and seems to be getting along fine.

Vernon Smith of Oxford who visited us this summer is planning to enter embalming school in September if Uncle Sam doesn't call him.

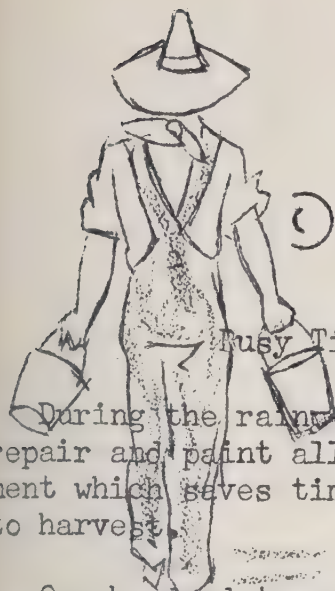

Horace Winchester of Winston-Salem, N. C. is in school and doing fine.

James Sturdivant who left Morrison in June 2, 1950 has finished Capital High School and is now in the United States Army, stationed in Germany.

We remember James as a very helpful and obedient high school boy.

Willie Ben Chandler of Nash County is attending school regularly and his attitude was good. Willie has made good adjustment in his community.

Elgie Clark of Charlotte has a job in a grocery store and seems to be adjusting quite well to his community.

ON THE FARM

Busy Time On Farm

During the rainy days we had time to repair and paint all the harvesting equipment which saves time when we are ready to harvest.

One hundred tons of corn has been stored in silage, and we are beginning to harvest sixty acres of hay.

The corn crop has an estimate yield of 75 bushels per acre. This seems to be the best yield per acre that we have had in many years. The rains this summer helped the corn crop immensely.

Our pastures are being prepared for winter grasing, and already several have been seeded in rye grass.

The truck cropping area has been moved closer to the campus because of the severe damage done by deer to our summer gardens. From the fall garden okra, beans, peas, and egg plant have been gathered for the food department. The outlook for collards, cabbage, greens and turnips is very good.

Irrigation System in Operation

This year an irrigation system was purchased by the school and put into operation. This is one of the new practices used by farmers where rainfall is scarce in summer.

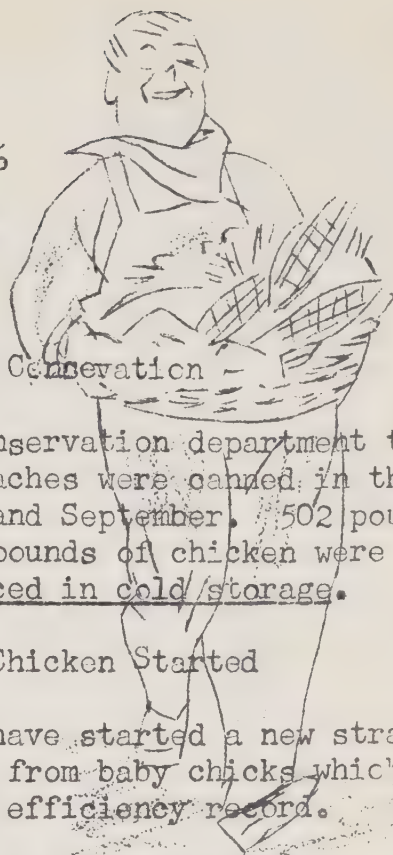

The boys learned the skill in the use and care of irrigation equipment.

Rye Grass Planted On Campus

Italian Rye Grass for winter lawns is being planted on the campus under the supervision of Mr. G. W. Tomlinson and Mr. C. D. Lowe of the maintenance Department.

The Maintenance Department cuts grass on the campus, and makes repairs on electrical appliances, plumbing, and wood equipment.

Food Conservation

In the food conservation department the 708 gallons of peaches were canned in the months of August and September. 502 pounds of peas and 2916 pounds of chicken were processed and placed in cold storage.

New Strain of Chicken Started

At present we have started a new strain of pullets raised from baby chicks which have a 60% laying efficiency record.

We anticipate the a sufficient rise in egg production to supply all area needs in the food department.

Our Milk Supply Increases

There are 32 milch cows, and 27 animals that will be used as replacements and beef, three of which were born in August. Our supply of milk is adequate for our population.

The Industrial Arts boys, under the supervision of Mr. L. L. Lyons have completed the fencing of 150 acres of woodland pasture. This area will supplement the other pastures already in use.

Soil Building Program Continues

The soil building program, started this spring, has begun to show definite signs of improvement. There are about 100 acres of crotalaria planted in strips.

Swine Production Shows Increase

The first litter of pigs have arrived from the cross breeding of a Landrace Boar and Hampshire sows started five months ago.

Forty pigs were born in the past month.

H1 Folks,

We're starting under the goal posts again this season and we hope to be counted among the victors.

Many boys on the line up have never played football before and some have not seen a regulation game, but we're out to win through good sportsmanship.

Gerald Murry played with the team last year so we elected him captain of the team.

We had a practice with the Hamlet team recently and although we couldn't list it as a game, it gave us a little confidence in ourselves.

Football Team for 1959

We have a very promising football team this year. Our first game is with Hamlet on October 1, 1959.

Here is Morrison Varsity Team:

Gandburr Softball League Closes Its Season

We have had a lot of competition and bushels of fun with our Sandburr Softball League organized by the counselors for intramural games.

Boys Participate In Intramurals

We have had a joyful summer playing baseball after supper, swimming in the campus lake and fishing.

We like to play out of doors and we dread to see the sun going down so soon. Of course, we play games in our dormitories after supper but what game can take the place of good old baseball.

Indoor Games

Two of our most liked indoor games are ping pong and checkers.

Each building has these games and many other indoor games that we enjoy very much.

Granson Lindsay excels in ping pong and Leander Graham in checkers.

Tournaments are held in winter to find the best players. Most of the time indoor games are enjoyed for the entertainment they furnish.

GREETINGS

November 25, 1959

Dear Friends:

At this time of the year our minds naturally turn to the Thanksgiving Season and to you, for you have made us thankful for your gifts and friendship every day of the year.

A special Thanksgiving Service will be conducted this year by the Reverend Leverette of Southern Pines, North Carolina, at 11:00 a.m., and the traditional Thanksgiving Dinner will be served at 3:00 p.m. During the rest of the day we shall enjoy intramural basketball. Thus our program includes the spiritual, mental, physical and moral development of all our boys.

Since the next Beehive will be published in January, it becomes necessary to include in this letter our best wishes for the Christmas Season. May peace and plenty be yours and good health attend you.

You have been liberal in your gifts to our institution this year such as magazines, candies, toothpaste, books and many other things that gladden a boy's heart and assures him that somebody cares.

We express our gratitude to all who have helped in any way to improve the program at Morrison.

Sincerely yours,

P. R. Brown

CAMPUS

TRAINING SCHOOL AT MCCAIN

In the midst of this Thanksgiving season, we at McCain wish to extend Holiday Greetings. We have much to be thankful for in the growth of our new school and there are many of you to whom we are grateful who have helped us perfect our program effectively.

We are still small in number but we have grown and are continuing to grow daily. Since our last report, thirty-nine boys have joined us, making our total enrollment fifty. As our enrollment increased it was necessary to make additions to our staff and we are happy to welcome them to our family. They are Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Dietitian; Mr. A. Wright, Cook; Mr. T. H. Duff, Counselor; and Miss E. I. McNeill, Assistant Counselor. We feel that their coming will be a great asset to our program and we hope that their stay will be pleasant.

For the accommodation of our boys two cottages are in full operation, Unit 2A and Unit 2B. The Cottage life program is under the direction of Mr. L. H. Robinson, who was recently appointed Director of Cottage Life.

On Sunday ~~afternoons~~ at four o'clock you are invited to attend our Chapel Services. Each Sunday at this time we are given spiritual inspiration to begin our week by different Ministers, who are members of the Moore County Ministerial Alliance.

There is much we would like to tell you but time nor space permits all the details, therefore we invite you to come visit and see us in action.

We are deeply appreciative to The Beehive for making these opportunities possible, that we may bring greetings and some news of our growth.

Academic Department

We opened school September 1959, with an enrollment of eleven boys. The grades range from 4-8. At the present, we have an enrollment of fifty boys with grades ranging from 2-8.

The temporary classroom was selected by Mr. W. R. Windley and set up by Mr. L. H. Robinson. The boys joined me in arranging the classroom equipment which included our portable blackboard, a contribution from the maintenance department.

We are doing our best to train and encourage the child to increase his learning to the best of his ability.

We would like to thank Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Brown for the many contributions that they have given us to aid and promote our program here. We are expecting our classrooms to be completed soon.

Do come to see us.

Worship Services

The Reverend Leverette, Pastor of Emmanuel and Faith Presbyterian Churches of Southern Pines and Aberdeen had charge of the Worship Services in our auditorium on Sunday November 22, 1959. The children seemed impressed with his sermon especially prepared for them. They expressed a desire to have him come again.

Rev. J. R. Funderburk, Presiding Elder of the A. M. E. Zion Church who lives in Southern Pines, assisted Rev. Leverette.

We were happy to have them both and we hope they come again soon.

Oct. 29-30, -Mrs. Sallie J. Mooring, Consulting Dietitian of the Nutrition Section of the State Board of Health, spent two days at Morrison assisting with the menus and showing what Morrison needs to meet the State standards of the State Board of Health.

We find that Mrs. Mooring has always been very helpful and very considerate. We welcome her at any time.

Boys Enjoy Worship Service

Rev. C. W. Perkins, our Chaplain has delivered very interesting sermons ever since I have been at Morrison.

His sermons are directed toward people who are building their lives, and developing habits that will later help them or hurt them.

Often he fills his sermons with pertinent examples.

New Staff Member Added

Mr. O. L. Hinton, a graduate of Shaw University, has been added to our staff.

We hope he enjoys his work with the exceptional children of our state.

Band Gives Chapel Program

The Morrison Band rendered their second chapel program last Friday, Nov. 20, 1959.

They played hymns, marches, and jazz, featuring a saxophone and a clarinet obbligato.

They surprised and delighted the audience.

Commissioner and Administrative Staff Make Routine Visits

Mr. Blaine Madison, Commissioner of Correction, Mr. Charles G. Bennett, Administrative Assistant, Mr. R. Vance Robertson, Director of Sociological Services, and Mr. Willard L. Brigner, Psychologist of Correctional Schools have favored us with their visits to our campus.

We are always glad to have them come to see us.

Superintendent Speaks At District Parent-Teacher Association

Superintendent P. R. Brown was guest speaker on "Juvenile Delinquency" at the fall meeting of the District Parent-Teacher Association held in Rockingham on Nov. 7, 1959.

He stressed the growing increase in the crimes committed by youth and alarming callousness on the part of parents and adults to join in the fight to prevent it.

"The children of today need our help. They need mothers and fathers and community leaders whose lives exemplify the high standards of Christian morality", said Dr. Brown.

Population Changes

Since the last issue of the Beehive our enrollment has reached 362 boys, the highest enrollment in the history of the school with a waiting list of 35.

Our average daily attendance will be around 359 for the past two months.

So far this month twenty-five boys have been released and nineteen boys received.

Play The Game

Boys are still talking about our football team and how the season's scores of six games with three losses and three victories ended. Scores are not the most important thing to talk about in any game.

Learning the skill in handling the ball, learning how to work together as a team, learning how to be good sports in every moment of the encounter, and trying with all your might to put the best you have into the game are some of the things that one should learn in playing any game.

Accepting defeat prepares us for the big game of life. Often we will lose when we most need to win, but if we have learned how to take defeat, we can try again with no damage to our personality. We cannot always win, but we do not always lose. A good sport is a cheerful winner and a tolerant loser - tolerant to the extent he does not envy the better player's victory. Instead he will study the causes of the other team's victory and improve in his technique the next time.

So, boys, keep on playing the game for you are learning some of life's greatest lessons - to live and work with people and win in competition with your fellowman, but not tarrying long to boast of your victories.

Some of you are going home to stay, and we are happy that you have made sufficient progress to justify your going home. We are deeply concerned, not so much about what you will find there, but what you carry with you.

Consider these virtues which you have been taught and practice them wherever you go-at home or elsewhere:

Honesty should come first because it is a part of the price you pay for freedom.

Obedience helps you to keep the respect of your family, your school and community. It deepens the respect we have for ourselves and for others.

Memories will help you to keep alive the things you have learned about brotherhood, the Golden Rule, and human relations.

Efficiency is the key to success. See that whatever task is assigned to you is done to the best of your ability. Doing your best habitually will eventually cause you to achieve efficiency.

Generosity is so often neglected. You will never be happy if you are always receiving and never giving. You must be willing to show your blessings, not only the material things, but the things of the spirit.

Optimism is so necessary to good health. If your outlook on life is optimistic your friends will enjoy your company, your family will be glad to have you around because you bring with you good cheer which makes everything around bright and hopeful.

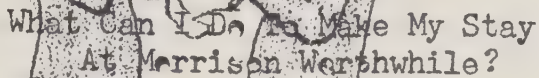

Intelligence is necessary for the good of all. It helps in the making of right choices and the solving of social, economic, physical, and spiritual problems wisely.

Going Home? Then ask God to guide you through the mazes of your tomorrow.

While I am at Morrison I can make my stay worthwhile by obeying the rules of Morrison. So that I will be adjusted to obeying rules when I return home. And through obeying these rules I will be able to correct some, if not all of the mistakes that I have made in the past.

Since my stay started at Morrison, I have had more time to think of my wrong doings. I have come to the decision that I brought it all on myself. When I return home I want the people in my community to say that my stay made a difference.

Hi Folks

SPORTS

The football season is over. The Varsity team of Morrison had a good season with three wins and three losses. The bears first game was with Hamlet; our second game was with Paden; and the third was with Asheboro. All three games were home games. Our first off campus game was with Albemarle, and the second was with Southern Pines and the last game was with Smithfield.

We traveled in cars to Smithfield. The kick-off was at 1:00 p. m. The team played hard from the start. It was a tight game the first half with the score 0-0.

The Morrison bears came back in the second and fought all the way to the goal, making the first and only score of the game 6-0.

The spectators seemed well pleased with the sportsmanship on both sides.

Indoor Games

Two of our most liked indoor games are checkers, and putting puzzles together. Each building has some games and many puzzles that we enjoy very much.

Thomas Thompson excels in checkers and Harold Teal in putting puzzles together.

Boys Participate In Intramurals

We have had a joyful time playing basketball, and football.

We like to play outdoors but it is getting colder and we have to stay in and play indoor games, but on some of the warmer days we play football with other buildings on the campus.

Marbles Hold Top Place

Marbles are still tops with the small boys and no matter what the weather they run outdoors and have a game if they only have a few minutes to play.

Story hour in Parson Hall interests some of the smaller boys when the weather will not permit their playing outside.

Basketball Team

The basketball season has begun at Morrison and most of the boys are out trying to make the team. The team isn't ready yet, but here is the schedule:

Feb. 16 - Pinehurst
Feb. 9-23 - Rockingham
Jan. 25, Feb. 18 - Asheboro
Feb. 8, Jan. 28 - Albemarle
Jan. 13, Feb. 5 - Fayetteville
Dec. 9, Dec. 16 - Laurel Hill

These teams are included on our schedule but we haven't heard from them as yet - Ellerbe, Aberdeen, St. Paul.

Thanksgiving Recreation Program

Again this year, we have organized a basketball tournament which will be divided into two divisions. Division "A" will be comprised of large students. Division "B" will be for the smaller students. This is to be an intramural contest and as such, varsity basketball players will not be able to participate.

The break down of participating teams will be as follows:

Division "A"

Rodd Building - 2 Teams
Tate Building - 2 Teams
Large Release - 2 Teams
Aggrey Cottage - 1 Team

Division "B"

Aggrey Cottage - 1 Team
Parson Hall - 2 Teams
Bost Building - 2 Teams
Small Release - 1 Team

Each tournament will be run on an eight place bracket. Division "A" will have one "bye," division "B" two. Division "A" will play three(3) games the first day, two the second and one the third day. Division "B" will play two games the first day, two the second and one on the third day. All third day games will be championship games.

Officials for each game will be appointed by the Director of Physical Education, Mr. L. V. Kalsley.

On November 26, 1959 between the hours of 7:00 p. m. and 9:00 p. m. a full length motion picture will be shown. Mr. W. J. Rigby will be director of the program.

Dear Mrs. Aggrey:

I am very glad to have been chosen by the counselors as the best behaved boy in Aggrey Cottage and receive the honor of being the first boy to use the nice quilt that you sent us.

I shall do my best to take care of it, and I am sure that all the boys who follow me will do the same.

ON THE FARM

Dairy

The boys assigned to the dairy have been quite busy supplying the dining hall with whole milk. 12,000 lbs. of milk have been delivered to the dining hall in the past months.

Approximately 400 lbs. of baby beef were processed and delivered.

In the calf barn, there are a number of calves out of artificial breeding. These calves will be used as herd replacement.

Winter quarters and a winter management program have been worked out.

Garden

The late garden has produced some exceptional yields. The school has been receiving from the farm: egg plants, squash, snap beans, okra, peas, and greens. These fresh vegetables have been cut off by the killing frost the week of November 9.

A large section of the truck cropping area is devoted to greens, rutabaga, onions, turnips, lettuce, kale and collards. These winter plants should supply the school until spring.

The potatoes and peanuts have been harvested and placed in storage.

Swine

The first litters of pigs have arrived from our new cross of Land Race on our foundation stock. These pigs, when matured, should give a better quality of meat. One group of fifty-six weaned pigs are ready for winter pasture. All of the fattening classes of hogs are looking good and a number of them will be slaughtered soon. Approximately 1200 lbs. of pork were butchered and processed last week.

Twenty acres of winter grain pasture have been seeded for swine.

The boys have repaired fences in the swine area, in the watering system, and feeders.

R. L. Jones, Farm Superintendent
Reporter, Robert L. Hurt

Field Crops

The crop harvesting has been completed. The boys deserve much credit for the long hours they spent pulling corn, hauling hay and silage. This work was done in ample time with a high degree of efficiency. The fall rain caused many delays in harvesting.

All tractors and tillage equipment are busy each day preparing seed beds for small grain, 50% has been seeded. Sixty acres of winter pasture has been planted. When the sowing of grain is completed, there will be a hundred and twenty acres of grain to be used for silage and other feeds.

There are eighty acres crotalaria seed to be harvested. This plant is considered one of the best soil-building plants for this area. Approximately one hundred and ten acres of crotalaria were seeded this spring in a strip-cropping system to improve the fertility of the land. From all estimates, it appears that we will harvest around, two hundred pounds of seed per acre. The foliage part of the plant will stay on the land to prevent soil erosion and add humus. Some areas where these plants were, have been turned under as green manure.

The boys who are working with farm mechanics have painted two tractors and three other pieces of equipment.

Vocational Agriculture Department

The vocational agriculture department is very proud of their project, the poultry plant. The egg production at the poultry plant has increased since September from an average of 85 eggs per day to an average 250 eggs per day. We are hoping by the end of November we will be getting 360 eggs per day.

We have 600 six-week old sexed baby chicks that will be in full production by April, 1960, with our old flock and young pullets we are hoping that we will be getting 720 eggs per day by the end of April, 1960. That will give the staff members and each boy at least two eggs per day.

E. D. Dixon
Vocational Agriculture Teacher

HAVE YOU READ

One God

This story tells everybody should understand and have respect for different religions in our country.

Parents and teachers will find the answers to the questions about God; the church, and the Bible that children ask.

The book is divided into three sections: The Jew's Way, The Catholic Way, and the Protestant Way. There is something to be learned that is valuable from each religion.

The Landing Of The Pilgrims

It is the story of the life of the people who came to America on the Mayflower, the perils of their voyage, and the hardships that they experienced. They celebrated the first Thanksgiving in 1621. The Indian Massasoit and his chiefs were invited by Captain Miles Standish, William Bradford, and the Pilgrims. The celebration lasted three days.

The story followed the colony through the 1648 at which time the colony prospered and the seed of liberty has been planted in New England.

LEONARD TRAINING SCHOOL

The school was officially named Leonard Training School by the Board of Correction and Training at its regular meeting January 20, 1960. This school was named in honor of Mr. Samuel E. Leonard, the first Commissioner of Correction and Training.

We find it fascinating watching the growth of our school and we take pride in sharing with you our accomplishments, experience and anticipated goals.

The Academic Department has as its philosophy "training for social adequacy and occupational ability and responsibility at as high a level of academic skill as the student's potential will indicate." Three additional teachers have been added to this department. The classrooms and library have been recently furnished with all new desks and chairs.

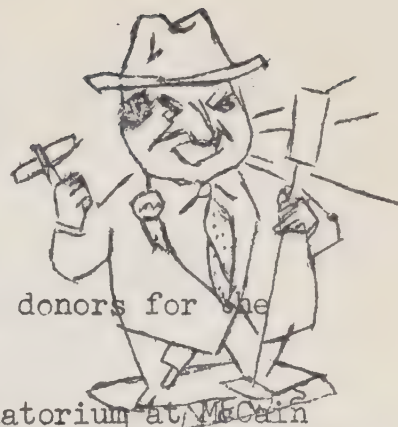

Three additional staff members have been added to the Cottage Life Department. We feel the Cottage Life Program is the heart of any school of this nature. As a means of promoting the growth of this department, we have visited other schools with program similar to ours. All of these visits we have found fruitful in many ways.

The Dietary Department has as its motto, "A well fed boy is a happy boy", this we have found a lot of truth in. The dining room for staff and boys is now completed and everyone enjoys each meal with the relaxing sounds from records played on our school phonograph.

Our farm has made very excellent progress with much of the land ready for the spring planting.

Mr. J. S. Lennon, Assistant Administrator of the Sanatorium at McCain, delivered the Christmas message. Mr. W. S. Dockery was the guest soloist. We would like to thank everyone sincerely for their contributions for our boys at Christmas.

Two Dentists Conduct Midwinter Dental Clinic

Dec. 28 - Dr. J. H. Barnhill and Dr. E. W. Swepson of the North Carolina State Board of Health, Dental Division, conducted a dental clinic for a week after the holidays, taking care of the dental work of the new boys and re-checking the boys who were checked in the summer clinic.

Miss Janice Brown, R. N. and Mrs. S. C. Carow, campus nurses, assisted the doctors with the clinic.

The nurses report that the general health of the boys is good. Colds are highest on the record of communicable diseases.

Newcomers Face Campus Orientation

During the month of December and January ~~sixty~~ two boys entered Morrison Training School making a total of 350 enrolled during these months.

Aside from the 350 enrolled at Morrison during this time, there were 30 transferred to S. E. Leonard Training School at McCain, North Carolina and 28 released in order to have room for the 62 entrants.

With this increase we were overly busy during the holidays with our orientation period.

Movies Appreciated and Enjoyed

The members of the eleventh grade wish to thank Mr. Moore and the movie committee for their excellent choice of educational films. We have learned many things in a short period of time.

We were especially interested in the health and science films. They taught us so much about the care of our bodies, miracle drugs, and sanitation.

Staff Members Attend Night Classes at A. & T. College

To improve the quality of their services Miss P. Brunson, Mrs. D. B. Shaw, Mr. H. A. Jackson and Mr. H. W. Parker are attending the night class of educational sociology held at A. & T. College every Thursday evening.

Miss Brunson also attends the Saturday morning classes, where she is taking Negro History.

William McGee Succumbs in Moore County Hospital

William McGee of Salisbury suffering with a brain tumor passed at Moore County Hospital December 16, 1959.

William was well-behaved boy who never complained. We only knew he was ill because he stopped playing and was unusually quiet.

William was a student of the eleventh grade.

Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Thompson, the eleventh grade, and Superintendent and Mrs. Brown attended the funeral.

Chaplain Gives Many Helpful Thoughts

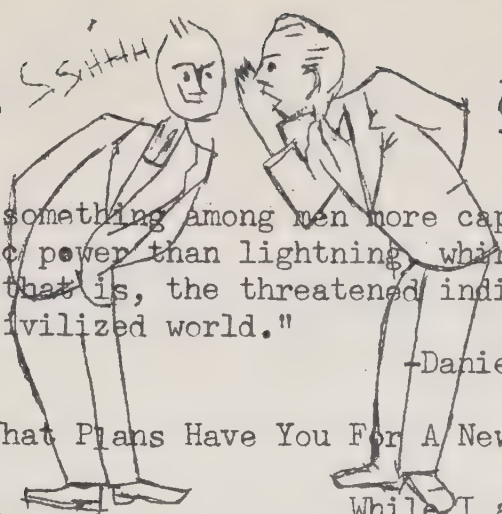

My classmates and I try to analyze each sermon that our Chaplain, Reverend Perkins delivers.

Thinking over his sermons I have tried to boil the themes down to pass to you. These are some of the thoughts:

1. "What have you got to sell? Do you know how to sell? Education tells you how".
2. "Faith is the positive attribute; fear is the negative".
3. "Christ is our pattern. Are you cutting your life out by the master pattern?"

New Day

As you enter the New Year I should like to remind you that there are certain obligations that each one of you should meet while you are the recipients of so many kindnesses from people far and near - gifts of clothing, food, magazines, books and money.

People have shown by their gifts that no matter what you have done in the past, they still believe that the future will bring to you a new realization of your responsibility to your community and to this civilization. If you do not deserve this faith that people have in your rehabilitation, then the future will be sad for you and them, for youth is the keeper and preserver of all that America has held sacred, of all that the generations before you have left for your heritage.

The New Year is already yours to live in - yours to start a new way of life. So prepare yourself for the duties that will be yours in the years that lie before you. Accept the challenge of each new day and let not the setting sun find you with one moment lost because you have not made the best use of it.

Cast away those things that keep you enslaved namely: fear, hate, superstition, whole life is but a day repeated."

-Bishop Hall

ignorance, greed, jealousy and dishonesty replacing them with faith, wisdom, tolerance, love and temperance. They will make you a worthy recipient of the blessings of the good life.

Campus Thinking

Often a casual visitors may assume that the boys of Morrison and similar institutions are unaware of the problems of the world outside, but their assumption is a fallacy.

Our boys are alert, not only to their family and community problems, but they are keenly aware of the international and national problems that greatly concern us at this critical stage of our history.

One senses their anxieties and deep concern as they ask such questions as: "What can we do to stop the Cold War?" "Can we volunteer for the Armed Services at seventeen?"

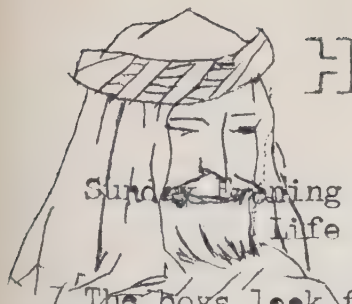

Well, these questions perplex adults, but we must find answers that are at least comforting. On the other hand, we are happy that they feel the same concern as other Americans and they are willing, in whatever way they can, to be of service to their country.

Strange how many of them think they already know the answers. And what extravagant ideas they have!

The increased interest in reading news papers and magazines, together with the information gained from listening to radio programs, has created a relationship with the outside world that needs to be kept alive. And so being isolated by society, because of their intolerable acts, they are not altogether severed from people and their relationships.

HERE AND THERE

Sunday Evening Is Part of Cottage
Life Program

The boys look forward to the Sunday evening movie as a segment of our recreational program.

On January 24th the boys and staff highly enjoyed "The Jackie Robinson Story".

Boys in segregation or on retractive privilege will not be given permission to see the movies. We hope that every boy will conduct himself in such a manner that he may enjoy the privilege of seeing every Sunday.

Some of the coming attractions are: "Home of The Brave", "Bells of San Fernando", "Babe Ruth Story", and "Davy Crockett", Indian Chief".

New Members Added to Staff

Mr. G. Ellerbe has been added to the maintenance staff. He will have charge of campus beautification.

Mr. Thomas Covington, a graduate of Livingstone College has added to the staff of counselors.

Johnny's Dilemma

Johnny was rather shy, but he lingered long looking in the big dictionary in the library. The librarian went over to assist him. "May I help you", she asked. "Yes, please. I want to look up the word 'up' but I can't spell it."

Intramurals Conducted by Counselors

The Holiday Season Basketball tournament was won by Large Release Cottage in "A" Division and Aggrey Cottage in the "B" Division.

In the first round of play Large Release defeated the "Tate Stompers" 30-17. Aggrey defeated the Redd Stars 22-15, and the Redd Hawks defeated Large Release "B" 17-12, the Tate Highlighters drew a bye and advanced automatically to the semi-finals.

Parson Black Hawks defeated the Parson Globblers 26-10. Aggrey defeated Bost 29-24.

In the championship round for division on "A", the Large Release defeated Aggrey 18-8. In the Division "B" Aggrey defeated the Parson Black Hawks 19-11.

Dr. P. R. Brown, our Superintendent, presented to both Championship teams. The trophies are to be retained permanently and are on display in Large Release and Aggrey Cottages.

New Furnace Installed in Teachers' Cottage

A new furnace has been installed in the teachers cottage by Mr. Lee Tyner and Mr. G. W. Tomlinson and boys of the maintenance department.

This work is usually done by a contractor and is the first furnace to be installed on our campus by members of the staff.

Now the teachers hate to leave the cottage.

ON THE FARM

Dairy Production Increase's

The boys working at the dairy have been trying to improve the basic production despite the cold and rainy weather we are experiencing. The herd produced 11,000 pounds of whole milk during the month of December.

Four heifer calves were born last month. These calves are healthy and strong.

Twelve bull calves have been placed on a grain finishing ration. These animals will be butchered in February.

A major repair job on the dairy has been approved, and work is already started.

Swine Production

Boys assigned to swine production have been kept busy butchering hogs for use in the food department.

During the months of December and January over 6,000 pounds were butchered and processed.

Twenty brood sows have been selected as foundation stock. Fifty eight Land-race and Hampshire pigs crossed are on pasture.

Crotalaria Seeds Harvested

A combine has been secured for the harvesting of grain crops. The boys on the farm are harvesting crotalaria seeds. From estimates, it appears that there will be a large yield.

Campus Beautification

This winter we have used the warm days to fill ditches left by the winter rains, planted pine seedlings and pruned trees on the campus.

We hope to do many things before spring.

Maintenance Department

Boys Prepare For Spring Garden

Land preparation is being made in the truck garden area for early spring planting. Plant beds have been prepared.

One acre of onions will be ready for dining hall this month.

The cold weather has retarded the growth of winter greens.

Industrial Arts Class Build Shed

The industrial arts class is building an equipment shed to house our heavy farm machinery, small tools and fertilizer.

The severe cold weather has hindered their progress during the month of January. Messrs. L. L. Loyns and E. S. Douglass are in charge of construction.

The Vocational Agriculture Class

The vocational agriculture department is hoping to have the New Farmers Of America Club organized by the spring of this year. The organization will give the boys a chance to take off-campus trips during the school year. During the summer trips will be made to A. & T. College, Greensboro, N. C. for a summer conference. For vacation they will be able to attend summer camp on the banks of the Atlantic Ocean. We feel sure that every boy will enjoy summer camp which lasts for one week.

In December and January our egg production decreased. Since our project is the poultry plant, we do all we can to keep our records up to date to estimate our profits if we were selling on the open market.

At present there are 170 laying hens, 198 pullets and 591 baby chicks. Chickens and eggs are furnished for the dining hall.

Highlights In Basketball

Well it seems that the majority of the boys here at Morrison have gotten hold of the basketball spirit by now, because the season has neared it's half-way mark. But it seemed that the team started out on the wrong track this year. The Bears have three victories and four defeats. Our high point player so far this season is Walter Tayler. He has scored approximately 70 points altogether in the seven games played. He has accomplished a 10.0 average.

Captain Ulysses Hall falls in second place by scoring 59 points which gives him 8.4 average. John Merritt is in third place with 8.0 average. Anthony Norris is fourth place with a 5.1 average for his six games. Norris is more efficient in rebounding.

Our alternating centers are James Regan and Iris Crawford, who have averaged about the same so far for this season. There are other efficient players on the team.

One of our tightest games was a home game with Pinehurst defeating us 36-34 with two overtimes. When the Bears met Central High in Asheboro, N. C. on the 25th, we set an all time lead so far this season with score of 19-4 at the half time. We are to meet a few more teams this season, and I'm sure the team will do it's best to win them.

This is our team:

R. Fowards - Ulysses Hall
 James Howze
L. Fowards - Walter Taylor
 Hercules Smith
R. Guards - John Merritt
 Granson Lindsay
L. Guards - Anthony Norris
 William Hope
Centers - Iris Crawford

Indoor Recreation

We have a wonderful time at Morrison in the evenings. Each building has its own games. We play bingo, dominoes, and table tennis.

For those who like reading instead of games, each building is supplied with books and magazines.

On Saturdays boys from every building have a chance to go to the gymnasium and play. These indoor games supervised by the house counselors help us to practice good sportsmanship, and we do want to learn how to get along with other people.

-Granson Lindsey

The Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club, along with the Band and Glee Club ushered in the Christmas season with a Nativity Christmas Play, entitled, "This Strange Night" by John McGreevey.

The play was given in the school auditorium, December 23, 1959 at 3:00 p. m. The characters are as follows: Esther, The Innkeeper's Daughter, Arthur McGee. Matthew, The Inkeeper, Jesse Braswell. Marcus, A. Roman, Robert Tutt. Asa, A Shephard, Raymond Miller. Joseph, A Carpenter, James Bellamy. Mary, Andrew Harris. Courier, from King Herod, Fredrick Crowell.

The play was directed by Mrs. J. C. Thomas with Mr. and Mrs. Tyner Scriven directing the glee club and Mr. S. W. Macon, the band.

The boys were given their first Christmas bags after the program.

A New Life

Skating, skating
Is always fun,
While you are skating
Other boys run
You skate this place,
You skate that place,
You have all the time
You want to waste
Then when playing time is up
You feel like a broken coffee cup,
That's why I say "Don't lose time waiting,
Get your skates and let's go skating."

The Light

Have you seen the glorious light
That's shining clear and bright
Try to do something each day
That is useful and right
The light shines brighter
When its dark and dreary,
When the eyes are blurred
And the steps are slow and weary.
What a wonderful feeling
To be able to see the light
That guides us through difficulties
Guided by God's holy might.

Thinking

When I was home
My grandmother told me many things
But since I wouldn't obey her
I went from right to wrong.
When I do the things that's right
I rest better all through the night,
Even though I let my mother down,
I've learned my lesson,
You can put it down.
So 1960 can record for me
A useful life, of dishonesty free.

-Robert Herbin
Grade 10th

My new life is just beginning,
I have just started living,
I find so many good things to do;
That make me happy the long day
Through
It's good time to be living
To be loving, to be giving,
Come, let's be a friend to man,
By being kind all we can.

Going Straight

What's the idea
Of not wanting to go straight?
You better wise up
Before it's too late.
Don't touch that money
You know it's not yours;
You'll end up in trouble and behind closed doors.
My mother told me
When I was about eight
There's nothing in the world
Like trying to go straight.

Footsteps In The Snow

Now that winter has come again
As it does each and every year
I think of the poor animals
And then I shed a tear.

By the footprints in the snow
Some won't get caught, others will
Because they have no place to go.

GREETINGS

March 31, 1960

Greetings:

At this time we are mindful of our many friends who come to our campus, and help us to impress upon our boys the fact that people everywhere are interested in their spiritual as well as temporal development.

In the past two months Mr. Bruce Webber of Raleigh entertained us with religious pictures and their interpretation. With him was Mr. R. B. Stokes also of Raleigh who assisted him.

Mrs. O. J. Saunders of Southern Pines brought the choir and minister of the A. M. E. Zion Church and her class from the West Southern Pines School giving us one program of sacred music on Sunday, and a class play during the week of March 1.

These are just a few of the efforts put forth by various organizations and individuals to help with our program. To say we are deeply thankful inadequately expresses the feeling of gratitude in our hearts.

May God prolong their lives to do many other charitable services in His name.

Sincerely yours,

P. R. Brown

Caseworker Issues Certificates of Discharge

Parents Visit Campus

The caseworker's office has been kept busy complying with requests for discharges from Welfare Departments for boys who have made proper adjustment in their communities and have been recommended for final Honorable Discharges. The number of boys receiving honorable discharges for March, 1960, was 60.

Some parents do not neglect the opportunity to visit their children on official visiting days, Wednesdays and Sundays. They have traveled through cold weather and deep snow over long distances to bring their children little dainties that they ask for.

Some of the students who had visitors in the past months are listed below:

Over a period of ten years, from 1950-60, the boys who ran away from the institution, were not apprehended, and are now above eighteen years of age have been issued a Dishonorable Discharge. Of this caliber 58 were issued.

Guests from Winston-Salem visited David Bethea, David Hackett, Kenneth Johnson, Lewis Jones, Raymond Miller, and James Scales; from High Point visitors came to see Granson Lindsay, Arthur Martin, Charles Thomas, and Lonnie Thomas; from Lexington Leroy Barmore, Samuel McIntosh, and Robert Smith; Durham Lawrence Taylor; from Raleigh Leroy Arrington, Hoyt Baker; from Asheboro parents came to see James Belk; from Charlotte Larry T. Guy and Joseph Houston; from Pittsboro John Surclock; from Gastonia Walter Mason; from Lumberton James P. Regan; from Albermarle, Luther Harrell and Robert Hearne; from Elm City Curtis Taylor; from Camp Butner Frederick Crowell; and from Greensboro Roland Logan.

Band Boys Play in Hoffman Parade

Mar. 28 - Seventeen Morrison boys under the direction of Mr. S. W. Macon participated in the Hoffman School Parade.

Many spectators watched their performance and expressed their surprise and delight.

We welcome our visitors and the boys especially appreciate the visits of parents.

Morrison Boys Participate in Spelling Bee

A New Arrival

Mar. 28 - The Alpha Gamma Chi Sorority sponsored its annual Seventh Grade Spelling Bee and Talent Show at the Anson County Training School in Wadesboro, North Carolina. There were ten schools participating in the Spelling Bee and two representative from each school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Parker announce the birth of their daughter, Cynthia Regina, February 11, 1960.

Workshop in Counseling

Mr. Vance R. Robinson, Supervisor of Social Services for Correctional Schools has conducted two workshop's on cottage life and counseling. They are very helpful in cottage life more interesting and wholesome.

Mr. Willard Brigner, head of Psychological Services of Correctional Schools accompanies Mr. Robinson on his monthly visits.

LEONARD TRAINING SCHOOL

Since our last report our student body has grown to 145. We have had an increase in staff members. We are happy to welcome Miss R. M. McIntosh and Mr. E. V. Martin as assistant counselors, and Mrs. F. F. Parker as assistant dietitian.

The Cottage Life program is progressing nicely. Mr. R. Vance Robertson has conducted two work shops, both of which have proven to be very beneficial in our program. Topics discussed in these work shops were as following:

1. Recognition and Treatment of Individual Difference in Children.
2. Teaching Responsibility and Appreciation to Children.

Recreation is considered one of the most vital aspects of our Cottage Life Program, thus we have provided three basketball courts, a horse shoe pit and a soft ball field for outside recreation for our boys. We have also provided a Ping Pong table for additional inside recreation for them, and many of our students consider themselves real pros already.

The Academic Department is beginning to take shape. All State adopted textbooks and many of the books for the library have been purchased. Both the Ladies and Men Lounges were recently furnished. New furniture for the Secretary's office and the front lobby recently arrived.

The Glee Club has made tremendous progress. This group has filled several engagements and has several invitations to sing at churches in the neighboring towns.

The Vocationa shop is becoming the center of interest on our campus. Presently the students are working in two areas: Leather and Wood.

Projects completed in leather are: Ladies bags, billfolders, and keyholders. Projects that are completed in wood are: Work tables, end tables, school sign and Ping Pong table.

Our farm has made excellent progress with much of the land ready for spring planting. When one visits it he readily thinks that we will soon be getting fresh Leonard grown vegetables.

We were highly honored to have to worship with us on March 24, 1960, Mr. and Mrs. Elaine M. Madison and their guest, Mr. and Mrs. Bull.

We at Leonard are proud of the adjustment our students are making. Recently it was our pleasure to release the following students: William Little, Donnie Barnes, and Roger Benton.

DEDICATION

We are happy to announce the official date for the dedication of this school, April 24, 1960 at 2:00 P. M. We are looking forward to your presence.

"Taken from Jesus' Prayer for His Disciples St. John 17:25-26"

"O righteous Father, the world hath not known Thee: but I have known Thee, and these have known that Thou hast sent me.

And I have declared unto them Thy, name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Thinking on Easter

As one centers one's thoughts on the Easter Season one seems to sense a divinity in everything around us-the budding of the trees, the sprouting of green grass, the singing of the flowers.

One cannot but marvel at the miracle of spring that reaches out and touches every living thing. Truly this is symbolic of the Resurrection.

God has kept His promise to man, but have we kept our promise to Him?

Have you had any experience with Jesus who loves little children as much as He loves the grown-ups?

Let Jesus come into your life to be your friend and guide. Let not your life be lived in vain for without Him we live vainly.

Your problems and the problems of the world that make us fear the outcome can be solved through this Holy One's formula for right living. He can bring peace and quiet to troubled hearts. If you and I earnestly seek His guidance He will be with us always.

This Easter let us be thankful that God so loved us that He gave His Son who, in turn, gave His life that all men may enjoy the abundant life that He alone could give.

Let Christ into your lives that He may keep you from the evil influences that brought you here.

Visitors Praise Bulletin Board

Mr. J. J. Moore continues to receive many compliments for the artistic way in which he arranges the pastel paintings done by the students of his art classes.

Each month carries with it something significant that can be emphasized through art. This they do.

The classes mean a great deal to the boys in helping them to express themselves through pictures, and it encourages them to do something that merits praise.

Our thanks for the beautiful Easter pictures on our bulletin boards.

Monthly Prayer Meetings

Monthly prayer meetings held in the auditorium are well-organized and the counselors give the boys an opportunity to express themselves along religious lines.

There is a spiritual awakening even among the older boys. We are pleased with what we see and what is expressed.

Dairy News

The herd reached a record high last month in population with a total of 75 animals in the herd. Five of these are newly born, four heifers and one bull. Five young cows are just starting to give milk.

We had an increase of 1,000 pounds of milk in February. We also furnished the food department of grain feed beef. We have more to be slaughtered next month.

-A. M. Davenport
Dairy Supervisor

The Vocational Agriculture Class

The Vocational Agriculture Class is working very hard to improve their project the poultry plant. Since our last report we have debeaked 555 young pullets and moved them into the laying house. The young pullets will be in production by the first of April. When birds are kept in confinement it is a "must" that they are debeaked if you want to the mortality rate to the minimum. It also make a much quieter bird and cuts down on cannibalism which is bad on your mortality rate and egg production. During the time of debeaking we also vaccinated the same pullets for fowl pox.

After removing the pullets from the brooder house we moved the litter out and scattered it in the fields for soil improvement. We follow our sanitation rules, working down disinfecting, and replacing new fresh litter.

We gave 600 new baby chicks in the brooder house now. We have vaccinated them for newcastle, and bronchitis disease.

We are working hard to have plenty eggs for Easter, so we will be able to give our boys a big Easter egg hunt.

Vocational Agriculture

ON THE FARM

Farm Crops

Plowing and planting are about two weeks behind because of the long cold winter months. Therefore, some of the supervisors are working on the tractors at night trying to catch up with the soil preparation.

Boys and supervisors did a exceptionally fine job of feeding and caring for the farm animals during the recent snows. They were able to maintain a mortality rate that was below normal.

In wood pasture areas fifteen acres have been cleared and prepared for improved pasture. Thirty-four acres of Bermuda grass has been top-dressed. Seed beds have been planted and small grain top-dressed.

Already winter onions are being sent to the dining hall. Cabbage, tomatoes and other garden vegetables are already planted in cold frames.

A new John Deere Tractor with cultivating equipment was purchased this month. It is ideal for row crop cultivation.

Staff Member Resign

Mr. Raymond Hailey a member of the farm staff for fifteen years resigned March 4, 1960.

Mr. Ellerbe has joined the farm staff. He will work with truck crops.

Choir Sings at Morrison

The members of the A. M. E. Zion of Southern Pines presented a program of religious music on February 21, 1960 at 4:30 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. O. T. Saunders. Rev. Moore the pastor of the church gave some remarks about how a person should conduct himself while growing up.

We enjoyed the program very much, and we hope they will come again.

Signs of Spring

I saw a redbird yesterday
Warming his frozen toes
Spring seemed so far away
There's snow wherever he goes.

Why had he ventured north so soon
Against his mother's will,
Far from his orange-blossom home
Where he could eat his fill?
-Lawrence Hemphill

Spring

Look! Look! what do I see?
Spring is looking in on me
All the birds begin to sing,
Butterflies are on the wing,
Life is every living thing,
Shows how beautiful spring can be.
-William Streeter

Thinking

I am here,
Without an invitation,
To this country station,
With boys whose attitude,
Wanted too much latitude.

If I could have my way,
I'd get a magic car real soon
And be the first to reach the moon.

-Alex Neely

Spring is Here

Winter has gone whether we know it or not,
Spring's lovely flowers are growing in the pot,
The world is God's garden.
To walk and rejoice in.
So be glad!

-Richard Herbin

Above

Sometimes, all above and blue,
With few to tell my troubles to,
But a lonesome friend or two,
They feel the same,
They put the blame
On some back home dame,
Whose claim to fame,
Is that she has a sweetheart at Morrison.

-Willie Luther Clyburn

Prayer

My mother taught me to pray
When I was a child,
She told me what to say
To Jesus so meek and mild.
Now I'm away from home
I long for her tender care
I find solace here in daily prayer.

-Willie Luther Clyburn

A Visit

One day on my way to grandma's house,
I came upon a big, fat mouse,
He ran up into a large bay tree,
And laughed aloud at poor little me.

-James King

If I Had

If I had all the money I could get
I would start a foundation
Throughout our nation
Where could meet
Whose shoes hurt their feet.
-James Jones

Patience

Time will reveal the calyxes of gold."

Mrs. Katherine Riddick Passes

It saddens our hearts to learn of the passing of Mrs. Katherine Riddick, wife of Mr. Frank Riddick. They spent 10½ years as staff members at Morrison before going to Washington, D. C.

We shall long remember Mrs. Riddick for her untiring efforts to beautify the campus around Redd Building, her pleasant smiles, and her strong character.

Two boys from Morrison Training School were privileged to participate in the match and made a very good showing even though they were not the prize winners.

Most of the participating schools were well versed on the seventh grade words taken for the spelling book.

The seventh grade teacher of Morrison, Miss P. Brunson, Mrs. F. M. Hasty and Mr. & Mrs. A. L. Cooper attended the Spelling Bee and Talent Show and enjoyed the entire program.

The seventh grade students expressed their appreciation to the Alpha Gamma Chi Sorority for inviting us to join the contest.

Population Changes Continued

Population changes create an awareness in all departments of the school every boy has a definite responsibility in some department that merits his personal attention each day. Therefore each boy leaving the institution must be replaced as soon as possible.

During the months of February and March fifty-eight boys were released and four transferred to Leonard Training School.

Twenty-nine boys have been sent to Morrison from the Juvenile Courts and Welfare Departments.

GREETINGS

May 24, 1960

My Friends:

It was sixteen years ago that I accepted the position as Superintendent of Morrison Training School, dedicating my services to the program of the rehabilitation of neglected boys.

Our enrollment has increased from 135 in April 1944 with 22 staff members to 362 with 75 staff members in 1960. With the increase in population have come the addition of 13 new buildings, varied improvements in the water system, renovation of several old buildings and many added facilities and equipment that greatly aid the type of work to be done. For all of these improvements we are deeply grateful.

As long as there are homes without love and proper discipline to which our boys must return, our work loses its effectiveness. We can only pray and hope that the friends of children everywhere will continue to help with the improvement of our communities that soon they may become a wholesome place in which our children are to mature.

My sincere appreciation is extended to all those persons and organizations responsible for giving me the opportunity to serve North Carolina's Negro boys. I assure you that the thousands of boys who have come to Morrison during my sixteen years have been trained in principles of Christianity and good citizenship.

Sincerely yours,

P. R. Brown
Superintendent

Summer Safety

As summer approaches and the weather calls us out of doors a few things we do well to remember:

1. Be certain that you know poison ivy and any poisonous plant that may cause skin irritation or rash.

2. Snake handling is for the professionals and not for you, if you care to be on the safe side. Even non-poisonous snakes can cause pain if you are bitten.

3. Swimming is an invigorating and healthful exercise provided it is properly supervised by an adult qualified to be a life saver. Too often inexperienced swimmers who think that they can swim well enough to take care of themselves in an emergency do not count on their physical condition and take fatal chances. Play safe and be sure to take all precautions.

4. Trying to be a stunt man may cause you to spend the summer in a cast. Don't be a show. Just enjoy the summer.

5. Fishing is great fun for old and young and I hope you catch the Big Fish but be careful with the hooks, and try to handle them so they will not penetrate the skin.

You can have a jayous time this summer if you are careful to practice the rules of safety and good sportsmanship.

Our Graduates

Invitations from several of our former students to their graduating exercises have been received.

We are happy that they have kept their promises in finishing high school. It means a great deal to us and to the school to know that we can depend upon their integrity and perseverance.

The staff and boys send their congratulations and hopes that they will continue their education until they have prepared themselves for outstanding service to themselves, to their state and to their country.

We are grateful to their parents and teachers for the faith and understanding that they gave them throughout their adjustment period.

We especially mention the fine record made by Thomas White at Dudley High School in Greensboro. He was an outstanding in athletics and make a good scholarship record.

Because of his excellent performance in sports he has been offered a scholarship at South Carolina State College.

Elbert Banks of Clinton and Nathaniel Green of Whiteville have also been offered scholarships because of their fine record in athletics.

Hi Sports Fans,

For the past months we have been engaged in America's number one sport, which is baseball. Our team got off to a very poor start by losing the first three games, one to Rockingham and two to Carthage. But after that we got the winning spirit and went on to win three straight games before losing another one. Our coach and Athletic Director, Mr. L. V. Balsley, reported that the one thing the team lacks is experience. We do not have players that played on the team last year. We hope that next year we will have a more experienced and more winning team.

The regulars for the team this year are as follows:

Anthony Bristow - Center field
Robert Jones - Catcher
John Merritt - Left field
James Reagan - Short stop
James McAllily - Right field
James Dunston - First base
Charles Rogers - Third base
Richard Williams - Second base

Pitchers are:

Paul Smoot, Nathaniel Williams,
John Merritt, James Regan

This was our schedule for the year.

Rockingham - April 14 - lost
Carthage - April 19 - lost

Jubilee Camporee Held On Morrison Lake

On May 13, 14, 15, 1960, Morrison Training School was the host for the Richmond-Anson County Division of the Central North Carolina Council of the Boy Scout of America. All Negro Scout Troops in this area were represented. We were extremely happy to welcome and to associate with the following troops: Troop 31 from Hamlet, Troop 58 from Lilesville, Troop 103 from Mangrum, Troop 112 from Ashley Chapel, Troop 113 from Rockingham, Troop 120 from Hoffman, Troop 130 Ellerbe, Troop 133 from Polkton, and our own Troop 137 from Morrison. The program was planned to make good use of all the time we had.

Saturday afternoon, each Patrol was led through a series of tests. These tests were designed to test the skill and knowledge of each patrol. Some of the subjects covered were compass reading, map reading, knots and lashings, fire building, first aid signaling and nature studies.

Saturday evening was an open period at which time parents and guests were shown around the entire camporee Campsite.

The Saturday night Camp Program was extremely interesting. The Patrol Awards were presented during this period. First place went to Troop 58 Lilesville. Our Troop 137 amassed the second highest number of points. Presentation of awards was followed by more songs and stunts. This period was highlighted by an original song entitled "Beans" and sung by members of our own Troop 137.

Sunday morning was clean-up time in preparation to leave camp. The Camporee was concluded by a very impressive Religious Service conducted by Dr. P. R. Brown. Dr. Brown expressed his happiness in having the Camporee here at Morrison. He explained the value of having our Scouts associate with those from other communities. The Services were ended by Dr. Brown inviting the Scouts back again next year for their Annual Camporee.

Farm Crops

The vocational agriculture class kept their promise to have enough eggs on April to have an Easter Egg Hunt.

We are able at the present time to supply the dining hall with an average of 465 eggs each day.

Canning

The cannery has been made ready for the canning season. Already we have processed 658 pounds of salad greens for the freezer. We hope to save all we can by freezing, canning and preserving.

Third Place Winner

William Henry of the tenth grade won third place in the School Masters' Spelling Bee of Richmond County. He received a medal.

This is the first year of our new venture in strip cropping. Over 110 acres of corn are growing, permanent pastures are supplying feed for farm animals.

The truck crops are all planted and we are already eating garden peas, greens and spring onions.

The irrigations system is in operation hence our garden is in good shape despite the hot dry weather. Corn, peas, beans, carrots, beets, greens, cucumbers, watermelons, squash, okra, tomatoes, beans-limas and string egg plant and cabbage are looking good for this season and strawberries are bearing and being sent to the dining hall.

Last month the dairy supplied 2030 gallons of milk and 1174 pounds of baby beef were processed.

3817 pounds of pork was processed and placed in storage. Hickory smoked hams and bacons have been turned over to the food department each month.

Week-End Guest

Mrs. Rosa D. Aggery and Dr. Berta Hamilton of Salisbury, N. C. spent the week-end of April 24 as house guests of the Superintendent and Mrs. P. R. Brown.

We were very happy to have them on our campus. They expressed their enjoyment of their visit.

GREETINGS

July 29, 1960

Dear Friends:

We are in the midst of our busiest season. It is vacation time for staff members, canning time, and school time.

Although we are quite busy trying to carry on so much, we were encouraged to find letters in our mail from boys who left us last summer, and who now want our advice about what courses to take. They have finished high school, some with honors. They promised us before leaving that they would try to give no further trouble and would finish high school, at least.

Each of these boys has possibilities that may be developed into skills and techniques peculiar to the individual. The type of individual analysis conducted for each boy, while he is here, makes it easier to determine his capabilities and interests. Such data will, in a large measure, guide us in helping each boy who seeks full utilization of his potentialities.

Therefore, I count it an honor and a privilege to be of further assistance to the boys who were once members of the Morrison family. They are confident that the services the school renders have no time limit.

Most sincerely,

P. R. Brown
Superintendent

CAMPUS NEWS

POPULATION CHANGES FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1960

Mr. Hosea Brower, our caseworker, has issued his yearly reports. From them we have taken a few items of public interest:

Admissions During Year 1959-60

Received from the courts-----263
 Recidivists-----48
 Transferred from other institutions-3
 Total admissions-----318

Total number of boys handled during the year-----653

Separations During Year-----300

1. Discharged without conditional release-----34
2. Conditionally released-----212
3. Transferred to other institutions-50
4. Total separations-----300
5. Total number of final discharges during the year-----570
6. Average daily population for the year-----340.27

Although the recidivists exceeded the number of 1959 by 13 many factors must be considered in determining the cause of this increase. The fact remains that all boys do not return to the same type of environment, nor have they the same reaction to whatever problems they encounter.

In comparison with the 1959 report the total population at the end of 1959 was 335, but the total population for 1960 at the end of the year was 353 and the total number of students handled during 1959 was 567. The average daily population has increased from 317.58 to 340.27 in 1960.

TEN STAFF MEMBERS REPRESENT THE NORTH CAROLINA BOARD OF CORRECTION AND TRAINING AT THE FOURTEENTH ANNUAL WORKSHOP

The University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, held its Fourteenth Annual Workshop for house-parents, and those caring for children in institutions on July 18-22, 1960.

This workshop was presented jointly by the Child Welfare League of America and the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina. They were presented under the direction of Dr. Allen Keith Lucas and Mr. Alton M. Borten of the University of North Carolina School of Social Work and The Group Child Care Project.

Representatives of the North Carolina Board of Correction and Training participated in the following workshop discussion groups:

"The Hostile and Rebellious Child and the Child Who Does Not Care," by Mr. R. Vance Robertson, Supervisor of Social Work and Cottage Life, Board of Correction and Training.

"Complaints, Gripes, and Answering Back—as Group and Personal Behavior," by Mrs. Connie G. Cameron, Head Counselor, Samarcand Manor, Mrs. Dorothy T. Brinson, Counselor, Dobbs Farm, Mr. Robert J. Covington, Head Counselor, Morrison.

"How Far Can We Go In Letting Children Be Wrong and Take The Consequence of Their Actions?" by Mr. Howard M. Todd, Head Counselor, Leonard.

During the month of July Mr. C. G. Bennett, Mr. R. V. Robinson, Mr. W. L. Brigner, and Mr. R. G. McCaskill have visited the campus.

We are grateful for their services.

around. Before we have gone far on the old way we find friends, among them Christ himself to guide and protect us on our journey.

Finally after reassuring him of the wonderful thing he had done for himself and for all of us who love him, I asked him to go to his building and clean up and he would feel clean inside and out.

He smiled as he left my room. In the hall there was his counselor who was looking for him, and to whom I explained the incident.

Reading For Pleasure and Profit

Bacon tells us that "Reading maketh a full man" and so if you wish to grow into full maturity-mentally and physically, you must be able to spend hours in reading those books that improve your thinking, enlarge your vocabularies, expand your sympathies, and your understanding of human nature, thereby making one alert to the tasks that lie before him and cognizant of his own responsibilities in helping to improve his own environment. One who reads can very well solve his own major problems even if it involves help from others. He knows what he needs.

Reading carries one away from his immediate surroundings and makes a hut a palace, a prison a cathedral, an ugly deckling a beautiful swan.

Tennyson says: "I am a part of all that I have met!" Make life what it should be through reading the best books you can obtain. The friendships you make through books are lasting.

The characters you meet in books are people with problems, and the way they solve their problems may help you to solve yours.

THE WAY BACK

A rapid knock on my door annoyed me a little, because I had set aside this period to sort out some material for the Beehive from the huge pile the boys had sent in. Looking up from the papers I noticed the tear-stained face of a dirty, mud spattered boy whom I bade enter. He came close to me and I asked what he wanted.

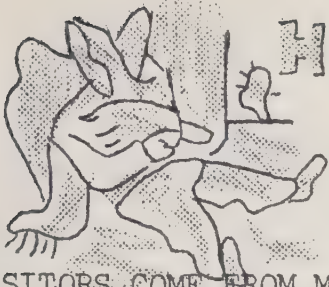

"I've come back," he said quietly.

"Come back from where?" I asked.

"I ran away from my work today, but when I got to thinking, I was sorry. So I turned around and came back."

I offered him a chair and for some time we talked of what it meant to run away and then to think and come back. I couldn't help thinking that that is what we all do at one time or another, whether mentally or physically. But like the Prodigal Son "we come to ourselves" and come back to the place from which we started.

This act of coming back is similar with one's conversion. It is a personal job we can do for ourselves. First, we feel sorry or repent because we are able to think on our errors. Then we forsake our way, and turn

PRINCIPAL'S WORKSHOP VISIT MORRISON

The students and teacher, Mr. A. H. Anderson, Principal's Workshop of North Carolina at Durham met in Aggrey Cottage as guests of the campus on July 21, 1960.

Two hours of the morning was spent in conference with the Superintendent, Dr. P. R. Brown, discussing various facets of the school program.

Lunch was served in the Morrison Dining Hall where they were reminded of the progress made in equipment, food, and expansion of building told by a former staff member of Morrison.

From the dining hall they visited the school where classes were in session; the shop where boys were busy learning the use of tools in industrial arts, cutting hair in the barber shop, repairing farm machinery in the auto mechanic shop and canning in the vocational agriculture class.

Other points of interest were visited: the dormitories, the farm, the dairy and chicken farm.

They expressed themselves as being well pleased with the program and the manner in which boys react to it, especially when they return to their homes.

OPINION

"He who has no opinion of his own but depends upon the opinion and tastes of others, is a slave."

-Klopstock

Question: If you could vote, would you cast it for Kennedy or Nixon?

I would vote for Kennedy, because I think he can do a better job. He is known for his fight against racketeering. Kennedy will fight for law and order.

Willie Clyburn

I would vote for Nixon, because he is more experienced and that makes him aware of America's Present Affairs.

Melvin Boulware Gr. 11

I would vote for Kennedy; not because of his being a Roman Catholic, but because he advocates fairness to all people.

Edward Anderson Gr. 11

I would vote for Nixon because I think he is better acquainted with the job of President, having been Vice-President for eight years.

Robert Hurt Gr. 11

I would vote for Nixon, because he is young and experienced in the business of the President.

Eddie Foxworth Gr. 9

I would vote for Kennedy because he is liberal and would not show favoritism in human rights or religious beliefs.

Kenneth Johnson Gr. 11

I would vote for Kennedy, because he is a young Democrat.

Grant Staley

I would vote for Nixon because he is a modern Republican.

Johnny Roseboro

I would vote for Kennedy because I'd like to see the world at peace in my life time. Kennedy, I think, is the man for the job—a christian man.

Earl Burnette

I would vote for Nixon because we need a man of experience with the solutions to world affairs.

BOYS PRAISED FOR WORK

The boys assigned to the farm have done exceptionally well in producing food for consumption in the dining hall and feed for the farm animals. The weather has been hot and dry, but production goals have been met. Early spring crops have gathered and stored for later. A major portion of the vegetables are used in the food department.

Some of the vegetables harvested are corn, squash, potatoes, onions, cucumbers, cabbage, lima beans, peas, tomatoes, and string beans. The second crop is in the planting process.

Around 100 acres of corn is being harvested. Sixty-five acres have been seeded in hay, and ten in sorghum. Thirty-one acres of Bermuda grass is providing grazing and dairy land.

Swine Production

The swinery has fifty young pigs. The boys have butchered 4,700 pounds of pork so far this month.

Dairy Keeps Boys Busy

The boys in the dairy are busy with the grooming and milking of 30 milk cows, caring for seventeen heifers which will be used as replacements, and three calves, born this month.

The boys, under supervision, have butchered and processed 1,781 pounds of beef this month.

The industrial arts classes have completely built a farm equipment barn. The following farm equipment has been purchased:

1. grain drill, tractor wagon, power meat saw, meat grinder.

This equipment will help with the efficient operation of the farm and dining hall.

Our new farm building just completed, has made us very happy for now we have a place to store our farm equipment so we can keep it oiled and shining.

Vocational Agriculture

Class Cans Surplus and Cares for Poultry

The canning season is here and we have started our processing. We have put in the freezer 1,300 pounds of turnip greens, 60 bushels of lima beans and garden peas, and canned 500 gallons of peach preserves.

Our baby chicks that we purchased last spring will begin laying next month. That will give us our goal of 1,000 laying hens.

New Farm Equipment Building Completed

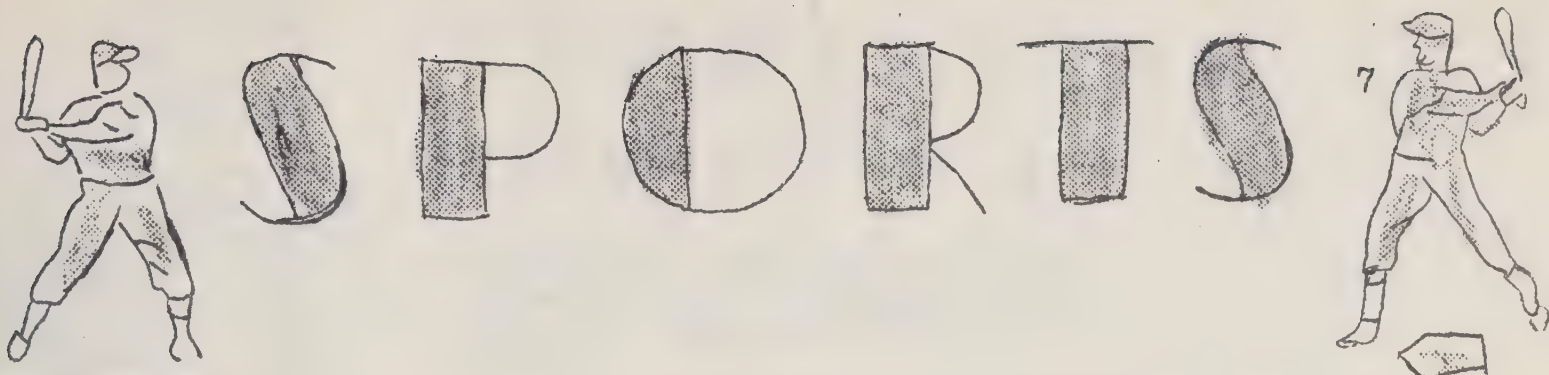

The industrial arts class has finally completed the building to house the farm equipment. We were delayed often during the early spring and late winter because of unfavorable weather conditions.

Messrs. E. S. Douglass and L. L. Lyons are the industrial arts shop teachers and they were very patient with us.

In starting this project we were able to learn every phase of the erection of a building 92 x 30 ft. from the ground up built of cement blocks.

Hi Sports Fans,

I suppose you realize that in a few months we will be participating in one of the roughest and toughest games played --- football.

We realize that the football season is just around the corner, so in our daily activities we are striving to build strong healthy bodies and muscles as firm as steel.

We only have a few players returning from last year, so our coach Mr. L. V. Balsley, will have to start off with an inexperienced team. We have confidence in our coach and we believe we can develop into a good team if we work hard.

The football schedule is almost completed and we are confident that we will have to put our best into the game to win.

Beauty of the Earth

Of the many beautiful things
That God gave birth:
On this vast wonderful
Glorious, flowering earth,
Nothing is so charming as
The sight of a bird;
Dressed in many colors
Singing songs you never heard.

I've listened to the music
Of a great symphony;
From here to France and London
Sitting by my own TV,
I've heard the voices of
A hundred voice choir
And the rythmn of a jazz orchestra
But nothing quite compares
With the Mocking bird's lyrc.

My Wish

I wish that I meditate
And make my dreams come true;
I wish for freedom more and more
For the good that I can do.

If I only had my dearest wish
And could go from place to place;
I'd find some human heart to cheer
Whatever creed or race.

Greetings:

I would like to express how grateful I am for the many expressions of flowers, visits and best wishes for my recovery. These have strengthened me for the ordeal through which I am passing.

Aside from expressing my personal thanks for personal remembrances, I am truly grateful to those of you who have remembered the boys with books, magazines, newspapers, and birthday gifts.

I hope as we face the New Year that our strength and faith may increase to meet whatever emergencies may exist, and may blessings that come your way in the New Year be bountiful and unending.

Thanksgiving Activities

Boy Scout Troop #137

The Thanksgiving Holiday season, held at Morrison, started Thanksgiving Eve with two plays given in the school auditorium. The first was entitled "The Use of Corn" and the second was "The Turkey's First Thanksgiving".

Thanksgiving Day was highlighted by a massive dinner which included turkey, cranberry sauce, pie, ice cream, and all of the foods that have made this holiday famous. Many of our students said that this was their most enjoyed Thanksgiving.

On the recreational side, we were entertained in the school gym by basketball teams from the buildings. Probably the most exciting of these was a game between the varsity team and the staff team. The staff led throughout the first three quarters but had to concede to their more youthful opponents in the final minutes of the fourth quarter.

Rounding out our holiday schedule, we had three feature length movies. Added to this were football games which were viewed on TV such as the great Army - Navy game.

The Annual Christmas Program

"A Star In The Night" will be given Dec. 22, 1960 at 10:30 a. m. at Morrison Training School, Hoffman, N. C. The public is invited.

The play is about a strange star that appeared like no other star. It brought shepherds and wise men together to find out its meaning.

As they came together they heard strange music and saw the star which led them to Bethlehem where the infant Jesus was born.

Music will be furnished by the Boys Glee Club augmented by selections by the band.

We are expecting our Commissioner, Mr. Blaine Madison to be present as usual.

The Boy Scout Troop here at Morrison has had many changes during the past school quarter. Both the Scoutmaster and the Assistant Scoutmaster are new. Mr. W. J. Rigby has replaced Mr. J. M. Sledge as Scoutmaster. Mr. C. Gore replaced Mr. S. Small as the Assistant Scoutmaster.

Our most outstanding addition to the troop are our new uniforms. At the present, each member of the troop has a uniform. These uniforms were first worn to the first Johnson C. Smith University of Charlotte and Shaw University of Raleigh.

Election Day found our troop out again. This time we passed out over 300 cards reminding the citizens of Hoffman and Marston of their privilege and duty to vote in the National Election. Our scouts went from house to house in these two communities and some were stationed in the main Post Office and other business places of both communities.

Population Fluctuates During Past Two Months

Mr. Hosea Brower, our caseworker, has issued his monthly population reports. From them we have taken a few items of public interest:

Admission During October and November

Received from the courts - - - - -	46
Recidivists - - - - -	6
Total Admissions - - - - -	52

Total number of students handled during the two months - - - - - 732

Separations During October and November

Discharged without conditional release - - - - -	4
Conditionally released - - - - -	38
Total separation - - - - -	44
Total number of discharges during the two months - - - - -	34
Average daily population for the two months - - - - -	342.33

Our population continues to increase despite the coming and going.

Books Received From Indiana And Winston-Salem

Mrs. Dan Clendenen continues to send us a large number of books which she collects and sends to us each year.

The books fill our library, classrooms, and dormitories with very valuable reading material.

We are also recipients of four boxes of books from Miss Mattie Smith of Winston-Salem among them are books of poetry, novels, short stories and juvenile books.

We are sincerely grateful to Mrs. Clendenen and Miss Smith for the very useful gift of books.

Former Commissioner of Correction And Training Visited

We were honored to have Mr. Samuel E. Leonard, former Commissioner of Correction and Training of the State of North Carolina, visited our campus, bringing with him a colorful selection of slides from Europe namely: Garmich, Munich and Bavaria. All of the slides were enjoyed, but the one concerning the Passion Play which takes place in the Bavarian Alps in a little town known as Oberammergau was the most colorful.

Every ten years in the quaint little town of Oberammergau the life of Christ is relived by the town's people who portray the religious characters who lived during the lifetime of Christ. Also, it is noteworthy that these persons who participate in the pageant are not actors nor actresses by profession, but they are conscientious people of that little village who are keeping a promise that was made 326 years ago.

Mr. Leonard stated that all of the costumes and scenery were made by the characters as people of the town of Oberammergau.

The boys and staff enjoyed the talk given by Mr. Leonard concerning the Passion Play and all of us are very happy when he comes to visit us at Morrison and we hope that he will visit us again soon.

Catholic Fathers Regular Trips

Father Joseph Howze of Southern Pines and Father Joseph Klua of Harlet make regular visits to our campus counseling the boys of the Catholic faith, teaching them and conducting mass for them.

The Christ Of The Manger

The Christ of the lowly manger is still the Christ that the world is acknowledging as the only Prince of Peace. His philosophy of the way men should live establishes the major premise on which men base the conduct of human lives. It is the measure of a man's inescapable duty as a member of society, of any society where man seeks to regulate his actions in accordance with right.

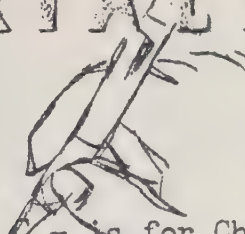

So after centuries have passed, the Christ of the manger is still the criterion of modern ethical practices. It is to Him that government must turn if they are to survive in this Atomic Age. To know Him aright is to know the solution to the many problems that hate and greed and intolerance have planted in the hearts of men.

* * * *

Memory Verse - For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

CHRISTMASTIME

Let the children hear the music,
As 'twas heard on Beth'lem's plain;
Let them travel with the shepherds,
If a Savior they would gain;
Let them listen to the Wise Men,
And their wisdom understand-
How the Christ Child in the Manger,
Is God's heavenly gift to man,
Let their tongues repeat the story,
Telling it where'er they rove;
Let their hearts proclaim His glory,
Of His greatness and his love,
Till the angels' song to man
Echoes in his heart again.

The Christ Of The Manger

The Christ of the lowly manger is still the Christ that the world is acknowledge as the only Prince of Peace.
 His philosophy of the way men should live establishes the master principle on which men base the conduct of human lives. It is the measure of man's incapable duty as a member of society, of any society where men seek to regulate his actions in right.

In after centuries have passed, the Christ of the manger is still the ex-tention of modern ethical greatness. It is to Him that government must turn if they are to survive in this Atomic Age.
 To know Him right is to know the answer to the very problems that and greed and intolerance have placed in the hearts of men.

Strip-Cropping Fields Completed

The boys assigned to the farm have been very busy with the winter planting and harvesting.

The strip-cropping fields have been seeded in small grain, comprising approximately about seventy acres. these fields are used for winter pastures.

One hundred and ten acres of small grain has been planted which will be used for hay, silage, and grain.

Soil Test Program Started

The farm boys and the vocational agricultural classes have started a soil test program on the farm.

Plots have been tested, plotted and mapped, in order that recommended analyses of fertilizers can be secured for crops planted on the different plots.

Truck Cropping Continues

The truck cropping area has been planted in cover crops. So far the boys on this assignment have also been harvesting fall collards, mustard, salad greens, turnips and spinach, onions and sweet potatoes.

Dairy Production Increases

The dairy herd produced 2300 gallons of whole milk last month for the school.

The dairy boys butchered 685 lbs. of beef. Three new silage feeding troughs were constructed by the dairy boys this month.

Swine Productions Soars

The boys working with the swine have completed the fall farrowing of pigs with the lowest mortality rate in the history of the farm. On November 20, 1960 the swinery started butchering and processing a number of hogs. Our goal is 20 hogs during the winter and spring months. The 103 pigs are now feeding on fall pastures.

The Vocational Agriculture Class

The Vocational Agriculture Class had a very good summer and fall canning and freezing season. During the canning season we were able to process and put into storage 1575 gals. of peaches, 635 gals. of peach preserves, 363 gals. of apple sauce, 47 gals. pear preserves, for the freezer 2187 lbs. of lima beans, 222 lbs. green peas and 539 lbs. of dressed chickens. The class would like to thank all of the boys who worked with us doing the canning season. We are looking for a big and better one during the season of 1961.

The class project, the poultry plant, is doing very good in egg production. We are averaging 635 eggs per day with a laying flock of 800 birds. The school purchased 1000 cockerels November 4, 1960 that will be ready for the freezer the second week in 1961.

Things You Should Know About North Carolina

Before 1860 North Carolina was leading "Gold State" for half a century.

New Bern was named in honor of the Swiss City of Bern.

In 1775 North Carolina has an estimated population of 265,000 whites and 80,000 Negroes. At that time North Carolina was the fourth most populous English colony, exceeded only by Virginia, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

In 1775, 50,000 head of beef cattle were exported annually from North Carolina.

On January 20, 1840 the first public school of North Carolina was opened in Rockingham County. For the first time the white children of the state received free education.

In 1860 there were 3,548 free Negroes in North Carolina who owned property valued $2,500 to $36,000.

The first tobacco factory was owned by Richard J. Reynolds and opened in Winston-Salem in 1871.

The 1870's was marked by transition, expansion, and the real beginnings of the Industrial Revolution in North Carolina.

Something For Meditation

The Reverend A. W. Perkins, our Chaplin spoke recently from the subject: "Standing At The Crossroads."

He seemed to be speaking to each one of us. These are some of the questions that he asked: What would you do if you were standing at the crossroad? Would you take the road that leads to life everlasting, or the road that leads to eternal destruction?"

"Every man chooses the road his soul takes."

"I have lived to thank God that He has not given all I've asked for, lest I forget Him."

Thinking

I am thinking of a friend that ever be Watching and caring for lonesome me,
I am thankful to my Friend above
For His protection and everlasting love,
I talk to Him both day and night
And promise always to do right.

-Richard Rorie

Unexpressed

I am thankful for these things
I know;
For birds in the breeze,
And beautiful trees,
For the welcome rains,
And the western plains;
For winds that blow to and fro,
Bringing the sunshine and the snow
I've seen all these things and I know
They come from a Being so Supreme
That He can fulfill men's never-ending dream,
Lord, I am thankful as I kneel
Altho I can't express how I feel.

Upward Striving

When I look at God's creation
I am thankful for His animation

Preparation

I want to make my life
More pleasant day by day;
I want to know the best way
To live my life as moments fly
Making each hour count as the

I don't want to be a hated man
I want to do the best I can,
I want to love and be loved by everyone,
I want to be happy at the setting

Boy Scouts

Few of the boys on our campus are persuaded to join the Boy Scouts and maybe they have good reasons.

There are times when one ponders whether or not he is capable of living up to the code, not one day, but every day.

But ask yourself why you can not be a Scout. Are you beyond the help that the Scout organization offers boys of your age? Can you qualify?

Before you can become a Scout, you must learn certain skills and the Scout oath and the Scout Law.

The Scout oath alone will train you in good citizenship if you keep it.

A Scout tries to be friendly, loyal, trustworthy, helpful, courteous, kind, obedient, brave, cheerful, thrifty, clean and reverant.

If these ideals are practiced earnestly and diligently, you will be proud of the kind of man you will be.

All Scout training has a definite meaning and purpose.

You can measure your own achievement from the begining or Candidate Scout to the highest honor, Eagle Scout.

Join the Boy Scouts and make yourself a useful man. Don't let Scout Week pass again without having joined this organization whose membership is found in seventy countries.

Brotherhood

This month we have also celebrated Brotherhood Week.

When we think of the frustrations among the peoples of the world, we are apt to become pessimistic, but don't feel that way. Our world is undergoing a new birth which promises better understanding, closer fellowship and a more sympathetic attitude towards the unfortunates of our world.

Our world today seems as unbelieving and as cynical as it was when our Lord spoke to the dubious listerners in His "Sermon on the Mount". Listen and hear Him say: "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God." "Blessed are the meek, For they shall inherit the earth".

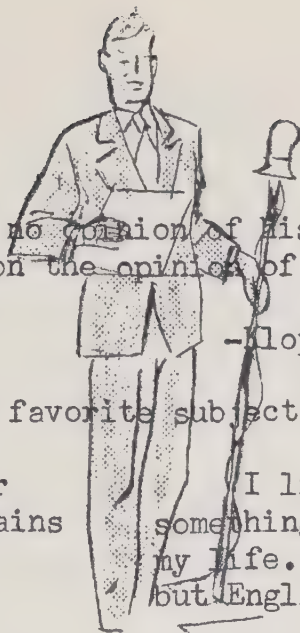

Brother should be practiced every day by everyone who believes that God is our Father and as we should that men should do to us, we should do even so to them.

Hi Sports Fans,

Our basketball team had a poor start, but we ended the season February 24, 1961 by defeating Asheboro 47 to 34.

Our basketball team has been invited to play in the District Tournament to be held in Aberdeen.

The players on Morrison basketball team are Louis Jones, Grover Whitley, David Bishop, Jerry Hariston, Charles Williamson, Willie McVay, Richard Rorie, Charles Hindell, Melvin White, Roy Hamilton, Fulwiley, Bobby Cannady and Willie Hopkins

Intramurals Among Classes

Each class has a physical education period in the gymnasium and we have in the various classes two and three teams in basketball, volley ball baseball and track.

In this way we enjoy the gym period and we look forward to excelling on whatever team we are.

All the boys in the class must play something and that keeps us from having any wall flowers. Hence we are learning good sportmanship and building strong bodies.

Leonard Program

Dr. Brown expressed his appreciation for the entire program and invited the group back to sing for us again.

Mr. Windley, Superintendent of Leonard Training School made remarks and Mr. Robinson, Assistant Superintendent brought greetings. Mr. H. W. Parker, Assistant Superintendent at Morrison acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Activities In The Buildings

Parson Hall boys are enjoying basketball, football, volley ball, puzzles, horseshoes, checkers, Dominoes, and 1-2-3 color paint sets which are growing popular around the campus.

Redd Building boys are enjoying most of the same things, but their list also includes chess.

Bost Hall boys are enjoying football, basketball, and bingo. Bost Hall's best sport is basketball. They are the only boys to beat Large Release one game in basketball.

Large Release's favorite sport is basketball. They have been defeated only once in all games they have played. They also play cards, bingo and checkers.

Aggrey Cottage and Tate Hall boys play practically the same indoor and outdoor games such as ping-pong, checkers, volley ball and football.

Small Release Cottage has the best basketball team so far as smaller boys are concerned.

Intramurals that are played on Saturdays between buildings arouses keen competition.

Population Flutuates

The population that has steadily increased over a period of years, has reach an all high, during the months of January and February, of 364 despite the fact that 49 releases were granted in the same period. Our January daily average was 356 boys and the daily average for February about 359.

What we are studying:

Biology: "Foods and Diet" is the title of our unit. We are learning the various classes of foods and their functions and what constitutes a sensible and adequate diet. We are also learning about the physiology and hygiene of nutrition and how to promote the understanding of important biological principles.

Chemistry: "A Chemical View of Matter" is our unit title. In this unit we are studying what chemists have done to give us a clear and orderly understanding of our material world. That is the classification of matter, its changes, energy affects, chemical reactions, preparations by experimentation, the language of chemists and how to apply the methods of science and chemists.

General Science: "Exploring the Earth" is our unit title. We are completing this unit which included much information concerning the solar system and our relationship to it, the modern advancements that have been made in space travel, how living conditions here on our earth can be compared with the possibilities of life on other planets and how man is still trying to conquer problems unsolved on and about our own planet.

POETICAL EFFORTS

Lincoln

We think of Lincoln on his birthday,
And the many good things
he had to say.
He threw his soul into his work
He spoke the truth and did not shirk
He wanted our country unified,
With debate and reason he sincerely tried
To make men open their eyes and see,
That there could be no unity with states half slave half free,
So "with malice toward none,
And with charity for all,"
A great man fell and great was the fall.

-Jesse Braswell

Valentine

Valentine, Valentine,
Won't you be mine?
Your eyes and face are so kind,
You are always on my mine
There's none so lovely in space or time
I can think of nothing I'd want above
More than your love!

-Archie Green

Valentine

My mother sent me a Valentine card,
It was red and blue,
And written in the middle of it was the statement:
"I love you,"
I was so surprised to get it
I couldn't help but cry,
To know she still loves me
I'll love her till I die.

-Richard Rorie

My Valentine

Mother my heart is wholly thine,
To purify and cleanse my mind,
To destroy every evil thing
And make my life as happy as a king,
I love you dearly, so I frequently write,
Knowing that you pray for me each might.

-Charles Swindell

Valentine

V - is for vehement on Valentine's Day,
A - is for aptness in having my way,
L - is for lament if you won't be mine,
E - is for enamor for you all the time,
N - is for naughty as you are such,
T - is for tenderness in you so much.
I - is for interest I had from the start
N - is for now you're in my heart,
E - is for eternity, my valentine.

Valentine Day

Happy Valentine Day!
Thank the Lord up above
For giving me a heart to love,
Now that I look forward and back
I'll try to walk in the Master's tracks
And love everybody every day
For this is Christ's way.

Swine Butchering Program In Operation

A system of swine butchering has been completed that will provide fresh and cured pork in quantities sufficient for the dietary needs of the dining hall. During the month of January 2630 pounds of pork were processed. A number of hams are being smoked and cured.

The boys are taught to care for swine from the breeding process through the butchering, storing, curing and sausage making.

Boys Prepare Hot Beds For Early Gardens

The boys who are assigned to work in the gardens have completed the preparation of hot beds for spring planting.

Farm Equipment Repaired

During the snow and when days are too uncomfortable to be in the fields, we are kept busy repairing, oiling, cleaning and painting our farm equipment that we were unable to finish during the fall. This means that we are ready when the weather permits to start the spring soil preparation and the fertilizer distribution to the grains planted in the autumn.

Small Grain Supply Cattle And Swine

The dairy herd and swine are grazing on the dense green pastures of small grain planted in the fall. A large area supplies green pasturage for all the farm animals when it is most needed.

The dairy herd continues to increase in number and production.

An artificial breeding program, started three years ago, keeps the herd increasing by replacements of the un-

Vocational Agriculture Class Prepares Cockerels For Table Use

The Vocational Class has just completed killing and dressing the cockerels that we purchased in November. We were able to turn over to the dining hall freezer 1937 lbs. of fresh dressed cockerels which we hope will be enjoyed by all the boys and staff. We did our processing in the school cannery. The processing was as follows: killing, picking, drawing, washing, draining, wrapping and weighing. We are hoping that all of the boys will know the proper way to prepare poultry for table use.

Our next project will be pruning our school orchard and caring for 600 sexed pullets for our laying flock replacement this month. The pullets that are purchased this month will be in production August of this year. The class wants to thank the farm boys who worked with us in the processing of the cockerels for table use.

Shop Constructs Self-Feeders For Swine

The industrial arts class constructed self-feeders for the swinery for a feeding capacity for about fifty head of swine. The present inventory of the swinery is 165 head of hogs.

Since farm accounting is the business end of the whole farm program, the boys are taught the solving of farm problems in various areas.

The Fisherman Piping

A man who cared more for his notes than his nets, seeing some fish in the sea, began playing on his pipe, thinking that they would jump out on shore. But finding himself disappointed, he took a casting-net, and inclosing a great multitude of fish, drew them to land. When he saw the fish dancing and flapping about, he smiled and said, "Since you would not dance when I piped, I will have none of your dancing now".
